Good luck on sales man.

nofear1999 - April 11, 2011, 3:36 pm

Yeah it's been up ever since then and I am so happy that I've made it this far. I am just pissed because I am dedicated to this shit and yeah I want to make a bit of money but I don't know jack for advertising so all these 2$ booters that last 2 weeks come around here getting everyone to threads and it fucks everything up. I don't even really have the cash to manage this shit because every month I'm digging out of my wallet lmao, no big deal I make 20$ every two weeks which is enough to pay for the hosting. I'm hoping that this deal will pick up a few sales so I can atleast stop digging into my wallet. I love DoSbox though so even if I keep losing money I will most likely continue the project :P
