OMNI PLEASE REPLY, MODS/STAFF DONT DELETE THREAD UNTIL OMNI REPLY.

Hey,

Yes it's me Cod3ing, and yes somebody has un-veiled me. [Orgy]

Omniscient, i have joined your forum back in 2009 - 2010[ish] and got banned for Scamming, i've made several accounts till then trying to get back to hackforums, and "P.r.o.g.r.a.m" this account, was one of those, i couldnt leave this forum no matter what, it was a addiction.

As you can see in my posts, i have been very helpful to users and have been offering support to those who needed to setup booter clients, which are what i was good in,

I would like to appeal to my ban, and please ask you to look into your heart and see that little light that says "Unable Cod3ing" if i returned to your forum i would strictly be on my best behavior and all my posts would be High Quality, i would not attempt to scam user's in any way,shape or form and would like to just return, if i returned i would purchase l33t, that would be the first thing i would do. Yes i know i have -54 reputation, but i would earn my way back from the -54,

Omniscient... please ... please.... dont ban me again,

Please man. literlly i am upset in real life.

You'll probably get banned anyways. Multiple accounts is against the rules. Contact them with the contact form.

Dmcboying - April 21, 2011, 9:44 am

You are in the Official scam group.
Someone ban this guy?

Kyle FYI™ - April 21, 2011, 9:44 am

Dude just give up, He will not unban you.

Grammar Rays - April 21, 2011, 9:44 am

Use the contact form, your ban will be (or should be) increased for creating a multiple account.

You're upset in real life? You need to get out more man.

Grumpy - April 21, 2011, 9:45 am

I should hope scammers wouldn't be given the chance to return and potentially scam again.

P.R.O.G.R.A.M - April 21, 2011, 9:45 am

It's because HF, it's users, and it's staff aren't stupid... Multiple accounts and scamming are against the rules. You've broken two of the rules already...

Factor8™ - April 21, 2011, 9:47 am

Use contact form. Till then Bye.

sam0016 - April 21, 2011, 9:48 am

You will probably get banned for this thread for ban evading or multiple accounts i don't think you will get unbanned.

Hot Chocolate - April 21, 2011, 10:02 am

Erm, Omni, before you read this, i'd recommend you take the time to realise that Cod3ing was banned on Packet-Punks for trying to hack their servers and massively abusing his mod status (he did a hacker22). He also constantly explains how apparently shit HF is on black market.cc

Yeah, and I believe (don't quote me) he also scammed some kids on Packet Punks.
^^ and that was like 3 weeks ago.
