Thread: [FREE Online Shell Checker \[Fast \]\[VERY Reliable \]\[Good for People With Slow Internet\]\[Delete Your Own Logs \]](#)

Alex™ - April 23, 2011, 12:36 am

Hey, so here is an online shell checker

<http://hf-alex.com/test2/>

If first link is slow or down go here : <http://alex.just-designs.com/>

Please do not click the "submit" button more than once and WAIT for it to load

I have used Curl so it should be fast and reliable

This is made more for reliability more than speed

this scans about 100 links in about 15-25 seconds

Once you see the submit button disappear the scan has finished..

The working urls will be in the box

This is very good for people with slow internet because all the checks are done server-side, that means all you have to do is wait for the checks to be done. The webpage is very small so it doesn't take up much bandwidth at all!

Have fun and please say thanks if you used it :)

Oh yeah, this will be of great benefit mate. Provided the accuracy is there, then that's all the matters.

Thanking you kindly.

Thanks, 60 views and 1 post, i might just take it down!

Kick Buttowski - April 23, 2011, 8:40 am

Will this log the shells we check there ?

Gangstar - April 23, 2011, 8:41 am

Thank you i try this later

VeNoMz - April 23, 2011, 8:44 am

Thanks for the shell checker, i'll be using it soon to check my shells. :D

Grand Pootis - April 23, 2011, 8:46 am

I will laugh when he logs all the shells you guys check with it and uses your private ones :P

Alex™ - April 23, 2011, 3:45 pm

Ok, I've made it so people can delete their own logs!

125 views and 7 comments.. Please dont make me make other people pm me for the link!

Forchieve - April 24, 2011, 8:49 pm

only bug i find is that if you press submit and the page refreshes, the both the clear logs and submit button disappears

????? - April 24, 2011, 9:06 pm

This doesnt steal our shells or anything does it lol?

like i said you have the option to delete the logs, how am i going to teal your shells?

poild - April 26, 2011, 3:12 am

Weird... crap.. I entered my shells.. and I kept getting shells that weren't mine..

I was like wtf.. So i was doing other stuff for like 30 mins and kept on checking.. and FINALLY nearly at a 40 minute point, I started to get my shells checked..

Alex™ - April 26, 2011, 3:20 am hmm, did you stay on the same page?

when you stay on the same page it checks YOUR SHELLS, people need to read, the link is to "LOGS" and its peoples jobs to clear logs, if they dont well other people can see their shells.

some people have shitty internet so they cant check all the shells using their own bandwith, so this script uses server's bandwith :)

famwemadeit - May 16, 2011, 1:44 am only problem being about this shell checker is if you accidentally scan the wrong file you got to sit and wait for it to finish or change your IP.... but besides that its not half bad!

one they were my public shell list that i put in that directory, 2 fuck off.

Turmoil - June 20, 2011, 11:04 pm

Not sure if its there alex but theres an exploit where you can see the working shells

It ended in data.php

well the thread is a few months old and some noob brung it back up..

ima close the thread, also data.php was meant to be there so that people could see their shells being scanned, the was a button to wipe your shells after you had scanned them. people use the word "exploit" without even thinking.
