Thread: Anyone collect yu-gi-oh/pokemon or know anyone who does?

ODDSAC - April 23, 2011, 8:02 am

I have found a few, less than a hundred maybe, but looking them up, some of the yu-gi-oh are worth a buck or two and ones worth £30+.

anybody know anyone interested in buying?

the pokemon ones i have include original Alakazam, Shiney Espeon, Dark Gengar, and Unknown J (+ loads more)

Rokakku - April 23, 2011, 8:38 am

I'm not interested in buying but I have tonnes of them from when I used to play. talking about yu-gi-oh, tis way better to play.

Yu-Gi-Oh's really big at my school right now. All my friends play it every lunch period. ;P

I used to collect myself but then I realized it was a waste of money. I only collect the ones with lolis in them now.

I must have 2,500 cards that people gave me and I collected when I was like 8. I really need to sell them soon, I'm sure I could get some serious money.

Rokakku - April 23, 2011, 10:42 am

I have some Japanese ones aswell! you jelly?

ODDSAC - April 23, 2011, 11:46 am

i have left leg of the forbidden one, shifted on ebay with the rest of them for about £30+, not gonna link it, ukfags interested might find it.

Kikarian - April 23, 2011, 11:52 am

Wow, this brings back memories. I must have 4000+ my 2 other brother's used to collect them when they were like 6. They got some rare one's which would probably go for 18$+ on their own, so who know's how much I will get for them all, now ebay is open and I am selling to some fag's, right now!

That gives me ideas, im off to list some on ebay now ?

Layfon - April 23, 2011, 1:24 pm

I have around 5 thousand yugioh cards i stacked up on.

Including yugis full deck (and god cards)

all the yubels, most forbidden ones. Mirror force (expensive one).

black luster, chaos, all the agents, and many more :P

Taiga - April 23, 2011, 1:28 pm

I used to play Yugioh, then I stopped in the 6th grade. After watching Season 0, and Battle City, I have like 100 dollars in my amazon account left, I'd might as well buy a structure deck for fun lmfao.

Layfon - April 23, 2011, 1:32 pm

instead buy something like?

well dunno but when i buy in packs i buy custom decks (rarely) mostly i buy singles i want (Like sakuretsu armor, trap hole, raigeki break, any synchro material monsters, witch of the black forest, or any card i need). And make my own deck.

ODDSAC - April 23, 2011, 1:39 pm

the ones im selling are chekkit on ebay UK if you can find it ive also gotta find somewhere to sell pokemon, might check local gamesworkshop or something

Layfon - April 23, 2011, 1:44 pm

I got most of those. But i think the exodia price is wrong, since i got my real all body parts on ebay separately really cheap

Aware - April 23, 2011, 2:08 pm

i used to collect and buy booster packs like a hardcore fan until i realized that 99% of boosters are shit, so i only buy singles / premade tournament decks now :)
