Thread: Some one Remote Control My computer

dxesion - April 23, 2011, 3:13 pm

some one comes into my coupter and starts opening programs like crazy the program they go for most of the time is Photoshop. could this be a government agency trying to get into my computer . ? is there a way i can monitor or see who ever is attacking my computer . If they get into mine can i get into theres ? is there a way to monitor all incoming and out going traffic ?

Government agency? Haha really that's the dumbest thing ive ever heard

Jeez - April 23, 2011, 3:16 pm

You're infected with a RAT. +1^

dxesion - April 23, 2011, 3:17 pm

does avast pick this shit up or i have to do something else

Loll'ed. Clearly you have not seen the "Remote Administration Tools" section of HackForums. Sorry, not exactly sure what to do, perhaps a white hat can help you. Lol.

dxesion - April 23, 2011, 3:25 pm

I check all my processes theres none there that seem to be any remote administration tools this should run in the processes right ? .

i went to goolge.com and my avast said theres a virus i just blocked . ps dont go to goolge.com

its probably FBI, dont worry about it

dxesion - April 23, 2011, 3:38 pm

lol its probably the rat thing is there an easy way to take this remote administration tool out of my computer or a way i can access the date from this ?

is there a Manuel way in taking this shit out ?

is there a Manuel way in taking this shit out ?First boot in Safe Mode with Networking Tutorial here

Step 1 Download MBAM [\[Here\]](#) and do a scan and remove any malware.
Also try the Eset online scanner here

Step 2 Open Task Manager and look for any unusual processes

Step 3 Download HijackThis [\[Here\]](#) and do a scan and post the logs in the HJT subforum of WHH

Step 4 Wait.
