Thread: [\[TuT\]How to grab a icon from a exe without opening the tool.\[Images included\]](#)

Hopsin - April 25, 2011, 8:56 am

Ok let's start - Fully written by Hopsin.

Things you need:

The tool which can be downloaded from official website

The executable you want to get the icon from.

Download the tool and install it,after that open it.

It'll look like this:

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

Press to browse your exe:

Should be something like this:

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

Open the executable,It'll show you the icon from the exe.

Here is an example:

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

So if you want to save it press the save button and it'll prompt you this:

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

When you want to save it look like this:

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

Done,That's it! The icon from the executable:

You can also use the feature drag n drop :)

What programming language did you write this application in?

Is it faster than <http://www.nirsoft.net/utils/iconsext.html>

N3me$!s - May 3, 2011, 7:46 am

hey thanks..i will try this out later

PhineasPhreak - May 3, 2011, 11:33 am

I am not so sure but I think this only works on PE Executables.
