Amazing what I can do when I'm not having to stare at SSH all day. :)

I'll be making that full plugin soon. Might even release it at MyBBCentral.

Oh...for ub3r and staff only. Sorry. :(

Good to see the 360 section at the top. Awesome feature

Androctonus - April 28, 2011, 12:05 pm

Hey that's nifty. Thanks for the share. It's a shame Deal Disputes is so high up there.

Ally Mac - April 28, 2011, 12:06 pm

That could be the most awesome thing ever.

Turns out around 1/5 of my posts are in the PS3 section, wow. Nice. :D

I really like this feature. I've always wondered which sections I posted in the most over the years. I don't know if this is possible but where the Post Count number is, would you be able to add a link to the actual posts? For example, you click the post number and it loads all the posts from that section.

Perhaps a thread you posted in was moved into that category.

This seems like it'd be the most reasonable explanation.

Wolves - April 28, 2011, 12:15 pm

I'm sure many people are going to be thrilled.

Especially lounge whores so they can see their "actual" post counts.

Most likely a post was moved into the staff section for discussion.

btw...you can view any members post activity with a uid=

I'll be adding this to profiles to make it even easier. This is sort of a working beta right now.

And I like the idea of a search from the postcount. I'll see about the effects of adding that.
