Thread: What Methods of Payment Does Omni Accept

What Methods of Payment Does Omni Accept... That don't require a linked credit card? What I mean is: PayPal requires a credit card. I need to get hfl33t, and can make $5 online with sites like neobucks, but I don't know... well... what service to use. I just want to be able to make the $5 online and buy hfl33t without needing a credit card. Anyone?

P.S. To Omni: If your reading this, the post office returned my envelope to sender. So, yeah.

I think there's Payal subcsribtion, Alertpay, direct payment to Omniscient (through paypal I think, maybe unverified paypal? I don't really know)

Await Omniscient's or someone else who knows reply.

Omniscient requires $10 for direct payments because the subscription will be permanent as it won't be linked to the IPN of paypal.

$10 by unverified paypal,
Alertpay is also an option.

And I think I recall someone paying by mail once but don't quote me on that because I'm not sure at all :3

i think it was Moneybookers instead of Alertpay, Vaqxine.

But let's just wait untill Omniscient reply's and your question will be answered, Ajax1

Omniscient - August 23, 2009, 8:40 pm

Alertpay
Moneybookers
Money Order
Cash

I will not accept personal checks. Any payment that's not via the IPN subscription module is $10 because it's permanent. For more details on a payment option just PM me.
