Frida - May 28, 2011, 6:14 am

danbirk - May 28, 2011, 7:13 am

Wasn't VanCliffe the owner of that channel?

Terence McKenna - May 28, 2011, 7:14 am

Torment - May 28, 2011, 7:19 am

Is it a partner channel? If this becomes the official hackforums channel then you could really make money off of it.

MikeTechSecurity - May 28, 2011, 7:20 am

that's a nice youtube page,, enjoy bro!

John* - May 28, 2011, 7:21 am

No it's not a partner channel but I will apply and see.

Haha you call Hackforums an OG name. Imao.

Inphex - May 28, 2011, 7:41 am

We should all contribute by making video guides and stuff and then make it into a partnership and share profits between OP and Omni.

I agree with Nerve. I say that everyone can send their tutorial video to omni/OP and get it posted so HF gains a profit

Warhawk - May 28, 2011, 8:41 am

iampoor - May 31, 2011, 12:05 pm

How do you get into contact with the owner of a YouTube account? Cause I'd like to buy an account but the guy hasn't visited the site for 5 years!

Arete - June 4, 2011, 1:39 pm

Personally I believe everybody with a youtube subscriber and viewing service should blow this channel up.

Talking 100k subs. It would increase traffic greatly.
