Thread: Free Youtube accounts. For UB3R or L33T only.

BlackGold™ - May 30, 2011, 5:39 am

I have youtube accounts.

They are accounts of active members. That means i haven't changed there password so the members who own them can have access to them but by the time i will give them to you you can change it.

They are of active members that means they put more videos in and get subs buy time. But im not sure if they will have a lot of subs and friends but i will try to give them to you with more than 100 subs.

I will give only one for each person.

Just pm me and add a post to this thread and there yours!

Goals:

Spoiler (Click to View) Become l33t or UB3R
