This is the scammer: <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=750585>

He Pm'ed me saying that he had Bots/installs for sale. He told me his prices to which I agreed to buy 100 bots for $10. He then told me what email to send the money through and to then PM him after the money was sent with the transaction ID and TeamViewer details as he was going to install them for me. After I sent the money and sent the PM containing the details requested, he replied saying he was connecting. Shortly after this he Blocked me on here and logged off.

I currently have a install store on HF.

I would like to buy 100 please. Possibly more in the future, but for now I will start at 100.
Ok. Well in my thread i have a cool freebie. My 1st customer of the day gets an extra 10 bots for their order. So you will be getting 110 bots for 10 dollars. Might not sound like much but hey, at least you saved 1 dollar!
