Anime Signatures Giveaway!

I'm giving away FREE anime signatures for AnimeFans!

I've taken this question multiple times: 'I'm not L33T neither UB3R, can I make an application?'

The answer is YES!

For now I'm making FREE signatures for everybody.

Hurry, who knows how long it's gonna last?

So fill in the next application and be patient!

I have lots to do, I can't make them all in one day. So give me some time.

If you're gonna be annoying I won't make you a signature anymore.

Application:

Code [b][color=#FFD700]Size:[/color][b]

[b][color=#FFD700]Render:[/color][b]

[b][color=#FFD700]Text:[/color][b]

Note: No proper render = No signature

PM's WILL BE IGNORED!!!

Any type of thanks is appreciated!

oneechan - June 5, 2011, 2:04 pm

Can we PM you our applications instead?

Sure!

You can either post it here or PM it to me :)

Nice thread mate! I'll PM you my application as soon as possible so we can discuss it on skype later. ;)

Sure bro :)

I wanted to chat with you on skype, but since skype has been sold the 'disturb' status makes it impossible to chat with you.

Really stupid.

Good luck at school tomorrow (+ xbox :p)

I'll put some works out of this thread since these days I tried to make some Non-anime signatures.
Nothing against anime, but I want to be all-around in graphics :P
That's why I made this thread, cos I LOVE anime and want to make some more :D
Hehe, I love the avatar, but it's not made by me!
Someone posted a thread around here about Anime Fans avatars or so.
And I had to laugh with it so I chose it :D
Gotta apply for Anime Fans though :s
And thanks!

Sigh i know the feeling, lately specially because of my graphics course in uni i have been doing hardly any anime graphic work. I need to make sure i dont slack off too much otherwise ill only be able to do IRL gfx haha. ^^

Haha ye, I've discovered that RL GFX and anime GFX is a totally different thing.
I didn't think it was that different.
I thought: If you can make awesome anime signatures, you can make good RL signatures.
But that's not working.
It's totally different and I want to try out all kind of graphics, I want to study grahpics later. :)
I just love it working with photoshop, though I'm not doing it for a long time, not even a year!
Started around september, with huge breaks :s
No breaks anymore!
<3 Anime <3
<3 Photoshop <3
But now I have to sleep, tomorrow I'll start working on the signatures!
If you want one, just for fun or whatever place it here or PM me :)
Good night :)

No worries, I enjoy making signatures.
It's useful to get some rep as well, but I enjoy more the time I'm photoshopping then getting something as reward, I just love it when people say thanks and love their new signature :)

Give me a render and I'll make you one, if you don't know what a render is: it's a cutted out person from a picture with a blank background.

You can easily find it just by hitting for example: Naruto render in google images.

Here you go, but I'm not really happy with the outcome.

Why not? The render wasn't good enough.

Why? Because it wasn't HQ and the colors weren't very strong.

If you want me to make another one, I'll do that because I'm not happy with my outcome.

But please give me another render which is HQ and I'll go for it :D

Starting today I'll try to make some more signatures for you again.

I'll be leaving this night and I'll be back monday from my trip.

And those who I quoted, please make sure you provide me a 'render'.

No render = no signature. Sorry. But I have no time to render at all.

Unless you let me choose any render.

But PI0xor I think you want some render from Fairy Tail? I'm sorry but I don't know that anime and I'm not sure which render you would like me to use.

Thanks guys :)
