Does it have anything special?

Any proof that you have the Gamertag. Too bad Gamertag has an L replaces for the I, but hey its a free contest. Might have some value to it.

Anyways I would like the Gamertag because my favorite show when I was little was the "Wiggles" haha.

Hope I win. Please and Thanks.

Great Contest/Giveaway. Keep up the good work. ?

I think I will win because I am related to Charlie Sheen- and Charlie wins in everything.

I would like to have this gamertag specifically because of my love for Xbox.

I have been a devoted member of the XBL community for 6 years now and I have had my version of games from CoD and Battlefield all the way to Portal 2 and the Fallout series.

I have only one gamertag, which is neither semi-OG nor OG and if you give this to me you will make me the happiest person in the world.

Anyways, I really hope to win and great contest you're holding! Keep straight with that HQ!

I would love to have this gamertag for 2 reasons:

1. I named my penis Wiggly.
2. I am awesome and i completely deserve this ;)
