Burnzy - June 6, 2011, 1:26 pm

now Recruiting

recent thread: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=629253>

Introduction

Team intra is web Security Exploit Team, We're group of Website Hacking Elite. We'll be taking on projects as a group and working together as well as just defacing for fun! we'll share the knowelage about defacing with other members and help everywere we can. however, we are not a group that just defaces and learns sql/xss, we'll do some graphic, coding or even share monetizing techniques. script kids are now welcome more info:

forum is done, we got alot of popularity last few months, also we are more like family, we dont just discuss about hacking, we are there to have fun and share nice stuff.

Intra team Leadership:

Hac -1st in command

-skynet190- 2nd in command

- .sfx (banned on this forums)

Requirementshas not any scam reports

500 posts (want to review quality)

you may not use any tools such as havij or other shifts.

skilled in SQL injection, XSS

, and some other common stuff.

more will be updated lather.

Applycation Form:

ok, we need someone ho can code etc. accepted. You'll get all info in pm when we take care of some things. Please use the avatar or sig atleast on 1 week, and ur knowelage and contribution will be reviewed to prove some things you stated in ur app.

@expression. I'll let hac to decide about ur app cuz am not sure.

Thanks.

If you post alot about website hacking, and seem knowledgable about it, it shows you know what you're talking about.

What is JDB, java debugger?

And what website coding do you know? Like which languages? Also We already have SQL people, but XSS is what we're in need of. If you know basic XSS and are a fast learner, you should be able to pick up more advanced stuff quickly, right?

Its a maybe right now.

- 1, i didnt tryed this but i belive others did.
2. Deface isn't succesfull every time. That's normal.
3. Cracking, defacing, a bit of graphic (looking for a gfx members) coding, and you can see in op what else. hope this answered ur questions :)

Age: 15

State/City Canada

years of Experience A few months now

Skills: SQL, Basic XSS, DDoS, GFX, RATs, Keylogger, School Hacking, little bit of Social Engineering..

why do you want to join? I want to join cause I love to learn new things, teach others, get teached by other and share the knowledge! I want to learn more about Website Hacking. Also because this group looks impressive! There are some really good people in this crew.

how can you contribute? I can contribute with tutorials, help each other out, do some GFX for the group, help defacing websites, help to make INTRA a good/positive group!

I dont have any defaces right now but I have some GFX for you.. If you would like to see some, I can PM you.

Thanks

Age: 16

State/City I don't really want to give this information out, but i live in the UK North from London.

years of Experience I fixed the grammar mistake but i have 1 and a half years experience of hacking and coding and social engineering. I'm soon going to take Body Language as a course in college.

Skills: Social engineering, VB Coding, Java Coding, RSBOT API Knowledge, I'm also fairly good at Graphics and gaming.

why do you want to join? Because i like hacking it gives me a adrenaline rush, i like helping other people and i don't have any scam reports upon my name.

how can you contribute? I want to deface alot of sites, i'm a good social engineer incase we have any other type of projects going on and i really do like hacking because it gives me a adrenaline rush. I have 4 hours of time and all this thing inside me making me join so it will make me contribute a hellof alot.

post your hacked/defaced sites (optional) I hacked like two but don't have a deface page, i will be using INTRA's

Age:17

NewZealand/Auckland

Years of experience:Around 2months of Full time

Skills: Top art student of the schools I attended. Touching on photoshop design. Experienced in ratting (Covering DDOS, Logging, Gaining information) Relatively new to website hacking, but have already got myself a foundation for sqli injection. Passed 23/24 for the NZ computer power intitue aptitude test and will be starting my diploma in web and software development covering (But not limited to) C# and Java. I consider myself a beginner social engineer and can more often than not get my way by talking on the phone with a successful pretext.

why do you want to join? I have a moto that I am well known for by all of my friends. "All or nothing" I'm not one who will happily settle with second best. I have reason to believe this group will hold some of the best. I believe the only way to become the best is to learn from the best. This is an opportunity I simply could not let pass by. I want to join because I am addicted to areas of knowledge that are less explored. Hacking is something that I am passionate about, and if this will help me, then hell I want in.

how can you contribute? I like to study, write, draw, plan and help others. Given a little bit more time, I can contribute by means of computer power, research skills, defacing, ratting or by winding up targets. I must mention though, immediately, all I can offer is my dedication to learning, willingness to help and determination to succeed expectations. If you believe in future investment, I don't see any reason for you to turn me down.

post your hacked/defaced sites: 2nd day working with SQLi. Will post my results when/ If I get them before this weekend

Inso - July 25, 2011, 7:59 am

Age: 15

State/City: Londonderry

Years of experience: a month or less, I learn fast. Check my RankMyHack signature for proof of this.

Skills: Basic XSS, SQLi (I can do it manually, but to save time I use Havij, if you want proof I can do it, I've wrote a tutorial.), exploiting DotNetNuke vulnerabilitys, average HTML coding, basic GFX, DoXing.

Tutorials wrote by me:

SQLi: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=1430686>

XSS: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=1511446>

why do you want to join? I want to join because I'd love to be a part of a group on here. It would be the perfect opportunity to expand my hacking skill, and I would be able to work along side a group of like minded hackers.

how can you contribute? I can upload files to DotNetNuke sites, but if someone is willing to teach me how to deface other sites, I am a fast learner, I guarantee once shown something the correct way, I will be able to do it. I can also do very basic XSS, and using it I can redirect viewers of some sites to my deface page hosted elsewhere. I can also help and teach others. Once I've learnt something, I'd be eager and willing to pass it on.

Here is my current deface page: <http://pastehtml.com/view/b1mxm8vhq.html>

I have defaced these using XSS redirects:

http://www.nphcda.gov.ng/guestbook.php?s_id=8&page_id=8

<http://leonardobarreto.com/guestbook/index.php>

I coded the deface page myself in HTML apart from the scrolling matrix style writing at the top. I also made that picture myself. Its an "Anonymous" body with the face sticker from "The watchmen".

I've hacked other sites, but not many defaces. My hacks since the 20th of July can be found at:

<http://rankmyhack.com/userview.php?user=jackeh>

As I said, if this isn't enough, I'm willing to learn, and I'm a fast learner.

Sirchade - August 2, 2011, 10:09 pm

Age: 15

State/City California

Years of Experience I have been into hacking for approximately one to two years.

Skills: Basic SQLi (Login SQLi, URL Injection, basic WAF bypass), learning Python, Networking, I plan on learning (At least basics if not advanced): Ruby, PHP, SQL, Assembly, Javascript, Lua, Perl; I believe I understand the concept behind buffer overflow attacks, I believe I understand the concept of XSS and SQLi; I am pretty decent at making google dorks, I know the - (NOT), + (AND), and | (OR) boolean logic operators, I know most of the advanced search things like "site:, ext: (OR) filetype:, inurl:, intitle:, intext:, etc", I use Linux (BT5 to be specific) on one computer, and windows on the other, I understand some of the basic linux commands like, wget, ls, clear, cd, ./, sudo, apt-get install/update/upgrade, apt-cache search, etc; I have fooled around with metasploit and SET but haven't gotten in depth with them although I have read a few free online courses about them but haven't finished the courses yet.

Why do you want to join? I want to be in your group, I may learn a lot from this and I hope I do.

How can you contribute? I barely have a life, so I am usually always on the computer and I will be able to help people with what I know, I can give some books that I have laying around my computer for certain subjects, etc.

Post your hacked/defaced sites (optional) I have hacked a few sites recently, but some of them I was unable to get the password for due to the hash being too hard to decrypt, or because I couldn't find the admin page (I looked for everything I possibly could, even used scanners to see if scanners could find the admin page but it was as if there was absolutely no login on the website at all..) I would post a link but I haven't defaced any of them, I use them for things I may need, like hosting.

Why do you want to join?

I want to join Team INTRA for 2 major reasons. The first major reason I want to join is to be able to learn, help, and meet new people. I want to learn all of the techniques INTRA members use so that I can help other members who are struggling with a certain area. I want to take everything that Team INTRA has to offer. Whether it be learning new hacking methods, or new monetizing methods, I know that being a part of Team INTRA means gaining knowledge. With the knowledge that I already know and the knowledge I may learn from Team INTRA (If accepted), I can help other members who are not so quick to catch on to things. I also would like to meet new people. I want to meet members who I have something in common with, as well as converse with others who are maybe total opposites. It's great to meet new people and hopefully if I am accepted I can make new friends.

How can you contribute?

I can contribute by first giving away all that I can. I do have programming ebooks that I am currently giving out, so if anyone inside the group is interested in coding I can give them a good start. Another way I can contribute is by giving my time and hard work and dedication to the group. I am a hard worker, and I promise to be focused on the group if accepted. I can also contribute by participating in group projects, such as defaces or teaching in classes or things of that nature. I can help others and make sure they are on the right path to where they want to go. I can contribute in skills that I already have knowledge in and the more skills I learn if accepted.

Post your hacked/defaced sites (optional):

I'm gonna be straight honest with you and not lie like some people may have done on their apps, I can get information from sites but when it comes to defacing them, I haven't done it. I understand the basic concept of finding the admin CP and/or uploading a shell, but I just haven't been lucky. I have however, assisted the user

D?Iluzion in defacing a news site. I can not remember the link to it at this time.

Are you willing to be active in our private forum? I will be more than willing to be active in your private forum. I will make sure to be active and post everyday, I give you my word.

Any proof of your skills?

Well, I did write a tutorial on basic SQL Injection which can be found Here. I am willing to do trivia if any of the members within Team INTRA do not believe me of my coding abilities. I have made more than 200$ E-whoring, and I am a huge Xbox Gamer (I will add any INTRA members if needed). I have experience with Cybergate, Dark Comet, and Blackshades RAT.

03storic - September 19, 2011, 9:01 pm

It would be nice to be in a team that had more then one person in it. ?

Age: 21

State/City Country: Australia

Years of Experience: Nearly 5

Skills: SQLi, XSS, LFI, RFI, finding file upload vulns in websites & learning to use metasploit; Also have experience with bots(IRC & HTTP based), RAT's, keyloggers and pretty much all forms of malware. Also make .bat files to make running perl and python faster and more automated.

While I cannot code off the top of my head I can read pretty much all type's of code and understand what is going on and if I don't understand something I know how to find out what I need to know.

Why do you want to join? I wish to join because it seems like a good opportunity to learn about all facet's of website and server hacking from people who have a lot of experience and increase my knowledge by a lot.

How can you contribute? A lot of random info and notes that I have kept for myself regarding a lot of different method's of hacking and server exploitation as well as teaching the things that I know to less knowledgeable member's while learning myself.

are you willing to be active in our private forum?

You bet ya

any proof of your skills?

i Have posted a lot of finds & tutorials here on HF, also maintain my blog here:

www.kaoticcreations.blogspot which is full of even more as I dont feel the need to post yet another SQL injection tutorial. I have had several of my tutorials on the blog picked up by developers of the SW so I think that shows most of my tutorials are of decent quality. Most of the others are posted here though.

anything else to add?

I am not much of a coder, but i do seem to be able to read through most languages to figure out the gist of what is going on and find holes. I know a little about a lot, and would like to be able to say I know a lot about a particular thing so please consider my application as I feel I can bring it, share some knowledge with other members, and eager to learn a thing or two from some more knowledgable members as well. Thanks for your consideration in advance.

State/City ...

years of Experience About 8 months (By the way, you spelled experience wrong)

Skills: Proficient web app penetration(XSS, FI, FUB, SQLi, SSI, CSRF ect.), server side(Privledge escalation, great with the Unix CLI), programming(PHP, SQL(mysql syntax), HTML, CSS, RE in actionsript), and most of all research(0day in a popular forum software, vulnerabilities in AOL(AIM)).

why do you want to join? To communicate with other security enthusiasts and developers and possibly collaborate on projects.

how can you contribute? Research and development on projects post your hacked/defaced sites (optional)I don't deface many sites, I find that vulnerabilities themselves are more interesting to play around with(rather than getting them patched). I have 'hacked' one somewhat significant website though, <http://r00tsecurity.org> a few months ago... although all I did was get the shell up and take the db, my friends who I shared it with decided to deface -_-.

Age:

17

State/City:

Wales, UK.

Years of Experience:

Not a lot, 1 month basic learning.

Skills:

I tried SQLi but couldn't fully complete it due to bad decryption skills. I'm fully skilled in HTML, xHTML and HTML5 all features. I've learnt VB.Net and a bit of C++ but I don't consider them related to hacking.

Why do you want to join?:

I've stalked Team Intra for a while, Even gotten help from a few Intra members. I would love to have the chance to learn from you guys.

How can you contribute?:

I can/will if given the opportunity provide accurate feedback and thoughts from a complete beginners point of view.

State/City: California

Years of Experience: 3 Programming, 2 Hacking

Skills: Scripting (JS, CLI, ETC), Some VB, Some C#, Some PHP, a lot of Java Based IDE Code (Processing), XSS, SQLi, Hash Cracking, Phishing

I want to join because I want to be part of a group that attacks for good reason, and I want to help serve that reason.

I can help by participating in DoS attacks and I can deface and gain access with SQLi and XSS, and I could write software and scripts to better benefit the team.

Here is one of my defaces: I have a thread about the SQLi, and I have it's password. Here is a pic I put on the checkout page for a domain: <http://bizdomainpro.com/checkout.php?ID=173> . Another is at <http://www.spjst.org/guestbook.html> (<https://i.imgur.com/o6Hly.png>) Only reason I post pic is because other people saw this and decided to overwrite my defacement.

Yes, I will participate in a forum actively.

Well, my deface includes knowing SQLi and XSS, as I got access with SQLi then posted with XSS. I also wrote a UDP DoSer that can take out routers very fast (Link in signature). And I have successfully grabbed access of many sites via SQLi.

s-17 - January 11, 2012, 4:37 pm

Age:20

State/City: Wherever TOR or my VPN at the time is located

Years of experience: 3

Skills: What you are asking for would be, SQLi; XSS; LFi; RFi; DNN. I'm also quite adept at improvement in short time frames.

Why do you want to join? It's always healthy to have stability as well as that you need to be willing to learn from others and this is a good place to learn.

How can you contribute? It really just depends on what is called upon from me, too many scenarios to be specific.

Post your hacked/defaced sites (optional): Lol, I don't want to undermine the defacers around the forum or even this team. But my belief is that you hack to learn not to destroy. I don't like leaving a trail, but since this team defaces I suppose I would have to adjust.

Are you willing to be active in our private forum? If I have free time then of course.

Any proof of your skills? If you're asking for me to prove that I know SQLi or any of this then I wouldn't know where to begin. So here's some union based SQL I guess

php?id=null (null because the hyphen before the ID just nulls it e.g -1)

0x0a will add a new list (e.g users,0x3,password,0x0a) so that it doesn't go off the page

It's basic but just summing up that I do have knowledge of at least one of these methods. At your post rule thing, I see no reason why that should be required being as it doesn't take a post count in order to prove decency. But regardless you have the right to decline on whatever grounds you choose. I'm just acknowledging my dispute with that rule.

Why do you want to join? I want to join INTRA because I like to help members of HF with any problem they have and If I don't have a solution to their problem, I will always find one. Intra seems like a Group that I would enjoy being in because It seems so HQ and I feel that being in Intra would help me boost the skills that I have to become a Better White/Blackhat. I like to persistently try to Deface a Site but Usually all I do is find a site Without an Admin Page, Without an Admin Account, Site that has no File Upload, or a Site that has Already been hacked which could possibly mean that I am (possibly) a good addition to the team because I don't quit until the job is done.
How can you contribute? I can Contribute by Helping any member of Intra get rid of any Malware/Viruses that have been detected on their system that they have tried to get rid of and Has had no luck. I could also help with Getting the Login Info of a Site by using Social Engineering or SQL Injection vulnerabilities (But It Barely works, that's why neither of them are in my skills).
Post your Hacked/Defaced Sites: I Haven't really defaced any sites, but the only site I have actually Defaced, was an HTML Admin Page but It looked ugly as the outcome.

Why do you want to join? I want to join INTRA because I like to help members of HF with any problem they have and If I don't have a solution to their problem, I will always find one. Intra seems like a Group that I would enjoy being in because It seems so HQ and I feel that being in Intra would help me boost the skills that I have to become a Better White/Blackhat. I like to persistently try to Deface a Site but Usually all I do is find a site Without an Admin Page, Without an Admin Account, Site that has no File Upload, or a Site that has Already been hacked which could possibly mean that I am (possibly) a good addition to the team because I don't quit until the job is done.

How can you contribute? I can Contribute by Helping any member of Intra get rid of any Malware/Viruses that have been detected on their system that they have tried to get rid of and Has had no luck. I could also help with Getting the Login Info of a Site by using Social Engineering or SQL Injection vulnerabilities (But It Barely works, that's why neither of them are in my skills).

Post your Hacked/Defaced Sites: I Haven't really defaced any sites, but the only site I have actually Defaced, was an HTML Admin Page but It looked ugly as the outcome.

Are you willing to be active in our private forum? If I'm Online, I'll be there Posting and Replying, Everyday.

Any proof of your skills? Here's some pictures of Sites that I have XSS'ed:

we consider alot when taking a member that is already is in a hacking group, application seems solid but as said not really sure other members will agree

Thread came up on my subscriptions, read a few replies, decided to reply.

HINT: People who are mentioning "web security" in their skills, you aren't being very descriptive. By web security you could just secretly mean "Oh I know how to add /admin/ to the end of a URL". You're also mentioning web security topics such as SQLi, XSS, etc beside "web security". It's basically leaving people to assume what you mean.

By meaning Website-Security for me is that I know if the Site is vulnerable to any type of injection and I can help you Secure your Website and Fix any Vulnerabilities in it.
