Thread: Official HF-LOTTO? | Need Approval from Administrators - Official?

Cyber-Security - June 24, 2011, 5:10 pm

I have decided to give to the community.... so I will be open for everyone (normal and upgraded members).... I dont get any money, so they just enter the lotto for free and have a chance of winning a special prize (cash, accounts, ETC.....).

What do you think? Is it OK? Would it be OK if I called it the "Official" HF-LOTTO? I need the "All Clear" from an admin and/or staff member.

Thank you for your time,

Cyber-Security

Why only L33T and UB3R members? I'm thinking you'll only use this 'lotto' as a rep building excercise. Normal members are just as entitled as the rest of us.

Ok then, I can do that too. But since it cost no money, I want people who have given to HF.

An Admin/Staff Member can choose :)

Why don't you let the normal members in on this?

Chances are if one of em win that they might upgrade themselves to anyways, making your (l33t,ub3r only) useless.

Thank you. I've been on this forum for almost 3 years. I'm HQ outside of a once in a great while flaming that I feel someone deserves. I have never been neg repped a single time ever, and I have only been warned 3 times, and that was for those once in a while flames I'm talking about.

I choose not to get leet or uber, because I just don't need it. Does that honestly make me less of a member than you?

Good luck with your HF-Lotto!

It seems like a really nice idea!

Just make a thread in member contests, no need for an announcement.

I want this to be official and yes, it will be hosted there. I just need approval cause I am kind of representing HF.... and I dont want to do something really stupid. ?

Frap - June 24, 2011, 5:21 pm

You did not just post this in Announcements..

I have a suggestion, 2 separate lottos:

1 for normal members for l33t.

Another for l33t+ with goodies.

How about one big one with both of those at seperate times? :)

Of course it doesn't. The more people realise that the better. If anything, I prefer to talk on Skype with normal members, they don't carry an ego and are down to just chill. As long as I see they have good intentions, they're just as equal as the rest of us.

You speak the truth! ? And what is your opinion on this lotto?

I know Omni won't make it an official Lotto. The general idea is pretty good. I like the fact you took the suggestion to include normal members. Remember to prepare for it.

Fail to prepare, prepare to fail :)

hahahahah I will! And I will also make a prize donation section. People can donate thier "crypters" and programs or even money and I will use it in the lotto. ?

Th3SiNz - June 24, 2011, 5:43 pm

Cyber, for a normal member to be in this it should be required that they have a certain amount of post, and reputation.

As in

Ex Requirements:

200 Post

No Negative Rep

HQ Member

etc.

OMG thanks dude! That just made my day! :D

I am going to use that!

Woe Is Me - June 24, 2011, 5:52 pm

I have an idea. For reg members, have it be a hf leet upgrade if you're willing to spend the money. For upgraded members have it be a little big more; once again if you're willing to spend the money. Then use the sins rules for regular members.... hope to see this good idea ?

Zeon - June 24, 2011, 5:52 pm

This is done all the time in the member contests section, no need for it to be official.

It is? I have not seen one active one. I want this to be the best :D

Qwazz - June 24, 2011, 6:09 pm

Why not just call it "The HF Lottery" instead.

Zeon - June 24, 2011, 6:11 pm

Well how much money do you have for a giveaway? By official I had thought that it would involve ALL HF members and the jackpot should be at least 2k.

The Rated R Superstar - June 24, 2011, 6:27 pm

If this was going to happen, I agree it should only be for HF L33T and above. The reason being that upgraded members have proved they're here for the community for the most part. Why give a normal member cash when he can take it and leave. If anything, this would be more incentive to upgrade.

Quincy - June 24, 2011, 6:32 pm

I could provide the money for upgrades, whichever users you choose to win the upgrade lottery, I'll pay via my Debit Card.

I could host the normal member's lottery with you.

Socketobi - June 24, 2011, 6:38 pm

This would be incredible. Good luck!

Legitti - June 24, 2011, 6:59 pm

This is not how to make it official

Omniscient - June 24, 2011, 7:03 pm

You can't do this official.
