When you now go to report a post the reason is a drop down select list.

Infected Download or Link
Flaming
Low Quality
Credit Card, Bank, or Paypal Fraud
Unrelated or Off Topic Post Reputation Abuse
Wrong Forum
Marketplace Thread Trashing
Double Posting
Cross Posting
Leeched Post
Spam Posting
Signature Limit
Forum Advertising
Personal Data
Lock Request
Adult Image
Other

Those are the current options and that should reflect the many problems we have here on HF. This will hopefully help staff and members.

Thanks to conan for the suggestion.

Notorious Mental - September 8, 2009, 3:44 pm

That's some great news.

I love it.
Nice

harsh - September 8, 2009, 3:45 pm

cool
now its easier to report posts

Beanie - September 8, 2009, 3:45 pm

Nice,
When i find a virus i will use that XD

Saged - September 8, 2009, 3:45 pm

I'm guessing "Bumping" goes into other. ?

Good update Omni, and good idea conan!

Vigor - September 8, 2009, 3:46 pm

Looks good, helps with time management, I guess.

bLiNk - September 8, 2009, 3:46 pm

Thank you for all the work you put into this forum. It is appreciated.

No..technically that's "Low Quality Posting".

[Process.xSs] - September 8, 2009, 3:52 pm

Damn Conan posted first , i was going to also lol.
Yeah it's a good change ?

Saged - September 8, 2009, 3:54 pm

Oh okay, thanks Omni. ?

?rauma - September 8, 2009, 3:57 pm

Good job Omni!!! this rocks

Conan - September 8, 2009, 3:57 pm

cool glad to see my suggestion being put to good use ^__^

Can it be edited to allow a custom report and can it be edited to allow more than one thing?

Sometimes mods don't catch everything.

Example: Earlier someone was abusing rep and had a duplicate account (he was banned).

88idiot88 - September 8, 2009, 6:15 pm

well done omni great change was well worth changing!

Saged - September 8, 2009, 6:17 pm

I agree Math. So when you pick "Other" you can enter your own text to report.

Paradoxum - September 8, 2009, 6:31 pm

This is a great addition. Thanks Omni! :)

Omniscient - September 8, 2009, 6:34 pm

SELECT form doesn't allow an input field. I just did a dirty fix by altering the form. I am sure if OTHER is used staff will figure it out. I tried to make the list as comprehensive as possible. I can always add stuff.

sorry for the personal question but does it group up the different types of reported posts now when staff looks at them?

iBruteforce - September 8, 2009, 6:59 pm

How do you mean Conan?

88idiot88 - September 8, 2009, 7:01 pm

i like this

Of Topic:.

nice sig lbf

;)

like however you see all the reported posts's

are the grouped into like

low quality post's

[posts reported for loq quality posting]

off topic

[posts reported for being off topic]

advertising

[posts reported for advertising]

like that

Skittles- - September 8, 2009, 7:25 pm

Good idea, nice to see it implemented. Well done Omni, And well done conan for thinking up the idea.

Nah, they're sorted by date. Top being the latest report. No special sorting. MyBB default basically.

Widow's Peak - September 8, 2009, 7:30 pm

Not that I know anything about the Mod CP, But that sounds like it would organize it a lot more from what iBF has said.

And if Omni wants them in newest to oldest they can go into those categories and still be like that couldn't they?

Omniscient - September 8, 2009, 11:38 pm

No it's sorted fine by default. You want to deal with reports by time/date imho.

Big.Eye - September 8, 2009, 11:50 pm

so no more bumping because it comes under low quality post ?

XDXDXDXDXD good job man

N3oP4L4d1uM - September 8, 2009, 11:52 pm

No, there is bumping & bumping abuse.

Nice idea Omni btw.

Haznet - September 8, 2009, 11:52 pm

Also, just noticed the

Quote:Adult Image

Does that mean no more pics like that outside of XXX Section? Even with spoiler tags?

pushl %ebp - September 9, 2009, 12:08 am nice.. i like the new update.

I guess you never noticed that img tags don't work in Hitler XXX.

And bumping is touchy. I can see it being the next rule. Often we warn for crap like:

Quote:bump too short

I don't think it's hard to see how mosts bumps fall under our low quality rule.

Mr.CocaineCharlie - September 9, 2009, 12:16 am

Seems like a solid Idea I guess,Ease up the Jobs on the Mods, BTW: you could make it even more easier By ranking each Report To a level So they would know were to start but i guess they have to go through all of them anyway :)

Omniscient - September 9, 2009, 12:25 am

I prioritized the list with most common first.

This helps staff hopefully by stopping false reports. Often people give reports on posts that don't break any rules at all. Part of the reason I liked this change.

Skill - September 9, 2009, 9:15 am

Yay, such a great feature.

Well done Conan for suggesting it and thank you Omniscient for implementing it.

MC' - September 9, 2009, 3:12 pm

I realized today you deleted my post in this thread and I got a warning (5%)

I actually did read the thread and thought the change was a good idea. I just didn't have much of a comment beyond 'good idea.'

So if the post is under the character limit, its poor quality? I would more say poor quantity

You don't always have to post. If all you can add is "good idea" then simply keep it to yourself.

? Elektrisk ? - September 11, 2009, 7:39 am

Thanks for the implementation of this. However, could another reason for reporting labeled, 'Necroposting' be added, please? Thanks.

iBruteforce - September 11, 2009, 8:27 am

Just report that as low quality.

Also, this is proving to be very effective, I find it much easier dealing with reports.

SkullTraill - September 11, 2009, 8:45 am nice. why is not conan a moderatuer?

| .At0m. | - September 11, 2009, 10:58 am

Yeah, and give new members a rough idea of what is wrong.

Thanks for this, i just realised i should be reporting almost every "too short" post i see ?

one question: Which of these would "encouraging rule breaking" come under?

iBruteforce - September 11, 2009, 6:31 pm

Erm, other. How often do you see that though?

m4tth3vv - September 11, 2009, 6:49 pm

I have a relevant suggestion.

Why not make it so that the same post cannot be reported multiple times?
