Thread: [\[TUT\] Make Money With Craigslist....made \$80 in two days](#)

ViciouS - September 10, 2009, 8:39 pm

Okay, so I haven't done one before but decided to try a tutorial. Recently (on september 9 and 10) i have made a total of $80 on craigslist. not sure if i can post this but i'll give it a shot.

Takes a bit of work but this can work. I made $50 the first day and $30 the second day.

I've discovered that there is no person easier to get money from than from horny people.

required:pics of a girl. must all be consistent. (ridiculously easy to get, have like 30-40 of them)

What to do:

1)Post an ad on CL. Put this in the casual encounters section (i'm sure we can figure out what kind of section this is)

2)Make sure the ad is set for a Woman Seeking A Man. Have your post title be in all caps and use the full length of its box and same goes for the location area. This makes it stand out really well amongst the other ads

3)Post something that will catch a guys attention in the message and have them contact you

NOTE: Make sure you do not place a message too explicit or mention selling or money of any kind because you will get flagged fast. I tested this many times and it was only on my last try that I didn't get flagged.

4)In the post have about 2 or 3 pictures of your fake girl

5)When the guys contact you, social engineer them. I used a like like "Glad the ad caught ur eye, but right now im selling my pics to nice guys". Eventually, out of the many guys that contact you, people will fall for it. Use social engineering skills here, its not hard. promise them something they want but make them pay beforehand

NOTE: You can barter for them to send the money upfront using pics as ur selling product. I myself had the fake girl promise "a nice reward at their place for the generous buyers who paid for her pics ahead of time" Make sure they "gift" the money to ur paypal

Use any location you want. it doesnt have to be an area u live in.

Well, its not a great tut but i'll get better with time. anyways, if anything needs clearing up i can explain it.

i sifted thru lots of buyers but ended up getting two that paid $50 and $30 for pics of a girl that doesnt really know them. hope this helps people. best for people who SE

lol. cool. i've never thought of using something like that before. its kinda unbelievable that people are willing to pay $1 or more per pic

(Sep 10, 2009 09:01 PM)ViciouS Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) lol. cool. i've never thought of using something like that before. its kinda unbelievable that people are willing to pay $1 or more per picYeah, I actually used to record the cam models over at www.myfreecams.com with camtesia, and then I used to go to chat rooms and be all like "Add me on msn if you want to see me naked on cam", then I'd play the recording over with a program called "Fake webcam"

And so many people would add me, I was making about $60 a day when I was doing that.But most of them were cheap bastards that didn't want to pay.

Still a good way to make money.

ViciouS - September 10, 2009, 9:13 pm

$60 a day is good money. thats great. u should have made them pay beforehand. but at least u made good money

This is really over saturated, and Craigslist is also experimenting with IP locators for posters, for now it's almost impossible to post ads in cvertain cities.

hm, so do they totally block a person from posting in a state that isnt their own? well i think the technique actually works for more places than CL. just happens to be the site i ended up using. what would happen if a proxy was used?

So far ive had little luck even though ive only tried it on two ads.. but ive got some tips to do it now so hopefully it all will work :D

by the way for the email thing just make a new gmail.. takes like 30 seconds ha, well u got further with two ads then i did. it took me about 6-8 ads before i had my method down right. u'll lose a lot of them but it really pays when one goes along with it. keep it up slasher. :) u'll succeed. with the experience from those 2 ads u'll keep getting better at it. im gonna try another technique tomorrow night

ViciouS - September 11, 2009, 9:23 pm

update: just earned $26 via paypal gift in a few hours. guys, it may be hard and arduous to do. but if u succeed its well worth it. think of it like this, no minimum payout, not a ptc. all u need to do is use ur brain wisely and outsmart people. which im sure all here can do.

dont give up yet because i have an excuse for that. well at least the one that i use when i tell them to send it to a different address as the email im using to contact them i always say "gift the money, make sure its GIFT or else i cant do the deal with you to this email: [insert e-mail address]. me and my cousin have a joint bank account so we only need one paypal for it. its just that paypal is registered under my cousins name" get creative with what you say to people.

gen0 - September 15, 2009, 3:42 pm

Ehh I've been trying this since last night - no luck so far.

You're right about the amount of guys that message you.

I've gone through about 500 emails all from different people.

50% of them don't want to pay for the pictures

15% of them will pay, but want you to "hand-deliver" the pictures

5% will actually pay for them I'm guessing

I'm playing this off legitimate too, here's a couple of examples:

Quote:how would i be paying for them? in person would be perfect start selling the idea of their "reward" more. u really have to convince them that the pics are just opening the door to their reward. provide back story for why u dont do money in person.

just cause its common sense doesnt mean people will follow it. as i have been asked that very question my answer was "this is a real girl chatting with you and giving you her full attention. some girl in a porn video isnt doing that for you. you dont get to have sex with her. but if you buy my pictures then i get into bed with you"

no matter how much something can make sense most people can be talked out or into something. thats the way people are. speech is a very powerful tool. have u been offering just pics or something for buying the pics? because just pics is a hell of a lot harder than offering up sex

i hear LA has a large gay community. maybe part of the reason?? um...try posting in a different city. try a major city somewhere. do a little research on it as u should know a couple places in it. (u should know what area you "live" in.) or you can say that u just moved there and dont know anyone or any place yet. this goes over well. just post in Casual Encounters as a woman seeking a man.

as for the content of your post put something like Code hey guys, im a sweet 19 yr old girl looking for some fun. im new to the area and hoping to meet a generous guy who meets some certain qualities. i like nice kind guys who are sweet and caring and are really really special :) . all guys who think they fit this please contact me, if not then please dont.

but make sure ur title is attention grabbing. must have pics and make sure u have filled out the 'location' and 'subject line' boxes out to maximum characters

alrite thanks...and how do they contact me? i cant put my email in the message. or is it under whre u put the title for title should i put somethin like.. I JUST MOVED HERE AND AM LONELY. LETS MEET UP :))) no problem. between subject line and the body of the message there are 2 boxes to place email and email conformation. when they hit respond the email will go to you. besides, to even publish the ad u will have to confirm in the email message they send u

Nemmyy - September 19, 2009, 6:50 pm

I just put up an ad. Man, I found a jackpot profile. It was a russian woman that had a great figure and was very beautiful. She had a lot of provocative pictures, including one where she was in a bikini and had swept some sand in the air at a beach. God I'm going to get so many hits with this, haha! :D

Thanks for the idea.

PS: what do y'all think is better? Saying I'll meet up with them and XXX them, or just sell pictures? I put my location as manhattan.

Here's what ive outcome to..

When you tell them you're going to meet up they instantly conclude theyre going to get some and start asking for your address and stuff - blah.

I'd say you have better results teasing them more and asking them "what they want to do" and stuff.

I still have yet to have anyone to pay up! lol CL does put a limit on postings and you will get flagged very quickly! So you have to make due with what you get. You can receive, but you can't send.

By the way, I recommend closing that account. It's against payp4l's ToS to have more than one account. Keeping your new account will result in both getting limited.

I cracked up. ^^

Still haven't tried this, yet. Too lazy, lol. Will when I have a whole day or at least 4+ hours. Anyone try giving them your MSN messenger and doing fake webcam? I'm gonna make a girly sounding hotmail account, link it to my paypal and give that email to them. It would sound less fishy if it's the same paypal as your msn, and there is a fake webcam girl on the other end. If people are as stupid on CL as you say, using a fake webcam would be a piece of cake. If they don't know much about the internet, they wouldn't know that you can fake a webcam. I know I could fall for it if I didn't know.

Im going to try this in a few days time.. i think Friday ? lets see how i do ?

miketh2005 - September 23, 2009, 9:08 am

Get good pics of girls on myfreecams, profiles. Record them with BB Flashback Pro Recorder, make sure you turn off hardware acceleration and set option GDI. I recorded a really hot girl and I even got a free show, so I don't have to scam anyone. They are paying for the show. I just switch videos when they pay up. It's like I'm a pimp, haha. But, really, it's great, I get money for a show and I'm not even a girl and don't have to show sensitive stuff to horny guys.

miketh2005 - September 23, 2009, 11:35 am

I posted my ad :D hopefully i followed the rules. it seems casual encounters is for free sex, while adult services is for pay (of course, round-aboutly), but you have to pay to post there. after successful payment, i should invest to post there i think mine got ghosted :(how long does it take to appear?

miketh2005 - September 23, 2009, 12:40 pm

Guys, I'm seriously fed up with this crap and I still haven't even gotten to the hard part! I can't get my post to show! I tried again and it got flagged, probably for posting again. I think it ghosted it because I'm not from las vegas??? How did you guys do yours???? You posted in the city your from? The problem with that is my city is very very small!

Craigslist has changed, to use it you need to get your account activated, using different IPs (MAX 7 post from each IP) and after that you're lucky if you isn't flagged down.

its pretty easy, just download this program called fake webcam and load up the video you want to be on the webcam and press play, you can pause and stop it, too. its real easy. sometimes you dont have to wait until the girl types, you can just pause the video, making it look like the webcam froze, then you can type. you just have to skip ahead a little when you unpaue otherwise it will look like it started where it left off as for the pics, u decide. i tend to send a mix of both. well, i suggest they all be 18+ lol as in dont do child pornography. thats a no-no. get pics of amateur girls nude and non-nude. send some as

All public proxies are softblocked by CL. you have to either buy PVA's or you could talk to some pervers and have them give you their phone number and put that in when you make your CL account. Then when the text is received by them, have them tell you the verification number then you can block them or try to get some money out of them.

Nemmyy - September 28, 2009, 1:19 pm

i have lots of pervs numbers but thats too much work. mite as well just use my normal ip. wat r they gunna do anyways kriminaali - September 28, 2009, 1:22 pm

well, im just sayin that you will get softblocked eventually for being flagged too many times, then you will need a PVA to post. You could reply to the hornballs' posts instead of putting them up. You dont need a PVA for that as Im aware of. forgot to mention that you can sell PVA's for around $4 a piece. But there's a whole process with making them good enough to sell.

worst case scenario? its if u actually scam them. what most people do is sell the pics for money and give the idea that sex will come afterwards. legally, the only thing that would be considered a scam is getting the money and not supplying any pics. this is also why we get payments by form of gift only. just logically explain to whomever u were reported that the agreement was pics for money and u can provide emails for proof.

you don't even have to do that if they open a dispute with paypal, you dont have to do anything but say that this is a digital item. paypal doesnt cover any digital item. although you can get away with it if the defendant doesnt respond...

Well even though you can have them gift the payment, it is still quite simple for them to have the payment retracted.

All they really have to do is contact paypal before you do. Happened to me a few times...not using the method posted on this thread XD

Just saying it can happen.

SO, probably best to have multiple paypals. Or maybe, after they send money to your paypal, buy a gift card from amazon and use it right away to add money to your amazon account. This way the money cannot be taken back, and even if it is and you have a negative balance in your paypal...I hope you used fake info for your paypal? :p

how so? like PM the TUT? hm, i think it should work even if noobs use it. as long as people dont step on each others territory. i've got a couple back up plans if people do step into territory. but even so, this new technique can be varied anyways. so people can use it for many things. just like the CL technique, i'm happy for anyone who tweaks it to their advantage.

For those of you having trouble posting on CL, hop over to Backpage. Yes... CL has much more volume than Backpage but they have a lot less restrictions. And although Backpage is starting to charge $1 per NSA post in a few cities, many are free and that's enough to make me $100+ a day. I'm not using your method but read this thread with great interest. I was hoping one of you would have figured out a free way to get around CL verifying and geo-posting restrictions. Good luck with your e-whoring and when you get tired of hustling for nickles and dimes, just look around. You'll find out there's a LOT more money to be made.

As long as you post a few ads a day and careful about it, you'll be ok for awhile but you "will" get softblocked eventually. It's just a matter of time. Basically I was talking about posting anywhere from 50 to 2000 ads a day. That's when you get out of the "nickle and dime" stage and running on automatic for the most part. As for the "method"... there's nothing new about it and it's done on the internet. Just look around. You'll find it. It's even been posted on this site more than once. I don't want to drop websites here because that could be considered hijacking the thread.

feel free to drop websites because i'm going to let this thread on its own soon to re-vamp the thread in a new one. few ads a day is too many. no one needs that much. i've gotten replies from ads up to a few days after i posted them. im trying to make this new thread better because ppl seem to be having trouble with this method. yeah, the method is not new but people still dont know how to use it properly and to their advantage. hm, 50 to 2000 ads works i suppose. u should honestly make a thread about it. it may work for some people. i prefer to respond to them one by one because people get suspicious and need reassurance that u are not a bot. i hate to run on automatic because i feel its not good at SE'ing people. i do ask that you make a TUT on it though. if theres a better way we should use it. i dont want to have to rewrite a thread that is obsolete :P

yeah, i was referring to the person who mentioned autorespond in ur email. they would get suspicious but imagine the flow of emails a girl gets from horny guys. it will take time so u wont be replying right away. thing is, what if they email u again? wont the autoresponder send the same message making u look like a bot?

yeaaa thats exactly wat i was thinkin...o well its not too hard to manage the emails anyways...the only problem ive had was gmail not allowing me to send anymore or not allowing me to send my prewritten message anymore because it thought i was spamming, so i had to start adding people names at the beginnng.

Azerith - October 11, 2009, 12:38 pm

There's no need for me to write up a tut. The info is already out there to be read. Go to "BHW" and read the "e-whoring" section. No one there will hold your hand or spoon feed you but every bit of information you would ever need to know has or will be written in that forum. "CU" is a good place to make a ton of money. $20 per sale and they even provide the landing pages if you need them. All you provide is your time and a brain.

I too use the one-on-one chat method at this time but plan to go on auto in the near future. This biz is a numbers game. Auto gets many more rejections but also makes more sales than one-on-one ever can. But... if a few hundred a day is enough for you, one-on-one is a good choice and it only takes a few hours a day.

i used hotmail for a bit and then i ran out of the daily limit so now i just stick to yahoo. it stops you but you can enter a captcha so it knows ur not spamming or being a bot. ur right. it isnt hard to manage the messages. i think if i successfully placed more than 3 ads it would start getting harder to keep up with.

Horny dope + credit card = $cha-ching$we write TUTs to make it easier for people. info is out there but people are not really willing to look. i have two methods that are working for me and i like them...those are methods besides my article writing though. i just write to benefit people on HF with TUTS. tell me if auto works for you because after rejection rate i dont see how people will follow the idea with just one auto reply. people who pay me always need a volley of emails back and forth. i think my biz is more of strategy than just numbers. i have to plot out my things instead. i just am not able to imagine it making more than one on one can. a few hundred is fine for me though. no real need to go higher. i dont wanna make a career out of this.

The only reason I dropped a message in here was to let some know that Backpage was an alternative to CL. Whatever method you choose is your business but I have to say this. Going down the "blackmail" path could really bite you in the ass. You never really know who is on the other side when doing that. Then again... that is your business too. Good luck everyone.

Well sorry it took this long to get back.. but my idea did not work. The site I signed up for was not looking for photos, they wanted to fly all over the world with them and I got plenty of offers to have relationships for 3,000+ a month!!! Was pretty crazy, alot of stories from that site. I had damn near 250 messages in the first 24 hours but all wanting to meet and fly me out to another country ect.. but all with a very nice price..made me wish i was her lol..

But one site that worked but it cost me 3 or 4 dollars to post was sell.com.. I made one sale for 20 bucks thats it. Also made a post on ioffer.com but havent had any hits on that one.. they both have an adult photos section. Also I heard ebay does (Oct 12, 2009 11:31 PM)kmasta_kzr Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) why do people buy pics when they can jus look em up online?

Because people who are horny and have money can be very stupid at times. A few people that I was talking to raised this comment and led me to "Well how many of those porno girls actually knows you, talks with you and is even willing to meet up with you if you buy. Those girls are just doing there thing as you watch them. They are just an illusion you can never have but here is a girl who is giving you her real attention". Something along those lines.

Point is, anything can be sold. I think there is a saying about good salesmen saying "They can sell you your own hat". Or something like that. It is all about talking people into things. And when you are on the internet it gets a bit easier.

I guess since I don't have any posts I'm out of the question on getting the new tut... =(

I'm really liking this idea, though. I'll try it tonight (Saturday night = horny men abound), and give results here. Paypal won't say what the gifts are for, right? the post count actually doesnt matter to me. i could give you the tut anyways. but i'd actually suggest seeing if you can work with this kind of tut first. its a different kind of version of "e-whoring". if you like e-whoring work and what it produces. if its a method that suits you then u can try more methods.

no, it doesnt show what it is for unless the customer puts a note on it. generally they just send gift and dont write a reason. but ur parents might wonder why strangers are sending money to their paypal. but to answer you, they wont see what the gift is for sometimes i tell them to make an offer for it first. and see what kinda numbers they give me. but then again, i do add some deal about them having sex with the girl.

And so many people would add me, I was making about $60 a day when I was doing that. But most of them were cheap bastards that didn't want to pay.

Still a good way to make money. Oh wow I do that with steamate.com, but I could never get anybody to pay... They would all say "I'm not paying you" or something like that ? Maybe we could get a group together and try this and split the profit ?

On topic: I'll have to try this, thanks for the idea but I don't think anybody would buy just pictures? I mean I see they do but that doesn't make any sense. I'll post my results whenever I get around to doing this they do just buy pics sometimes. lol. some days i dont even have to give them the hint of sex. so desperate for something that they will take just the pics.

He hints at the fact that they will get something more than just pics. (eg. sex locally) exactly. when they think they will they are more likely to pay.

i think they have a free signup for their service. its like a social network that gives you a free phone number. you can also receive texts to it also. and they have numbers available for at least 2 different US states. ^-^ thanks a lot.. i owe you =)no problem. i completely forgot that i had known of bueno. i learned about it when i was searching for a way to make disposable accounts for some other method.

gald some people are actually trying. and better yet, finding solutions to problems they come across. people who have made the most money generally dont have their hands held. think outside the box. u guys dont have to do exactly everything that i did in the TUT. make it work for you however u can.

If bueno doesnt work, find an alternative solution. if nothing works and you cant use CL, buy a verified CL account for like $2. if you dont wanna that $2, go and find an alternative market to horny CL guys.

bullocks - January 4, 2010, 1:29 am yeah bueno and skype are both fail idk why. i thought skype would work for sure i got a legit number and shit. u can use backpage instead of CL but it aint that great. i wouldnt mind buying a CL account to see what the market is liek on there :D

CRAIGSLIST MONEY MAKING METHOD

Okay, so I haven't done one before but decided to try a tutorial. Recently (on september 9 and 10) i have made a total of $80 on craigslist. not sure if i can post this but i'll give it a shot.

Takes a bit of work but this can work. I made $50 the first day and $30 the second day.

I've discovered that there is no person easier to get money from than from horny people.

REQUIREMENTS

30-40 pics of the same girl

Post an ad on CL. Put this in the casual encounters section (i'm sure we can figure out what kind of section this is)

Make sure the ad is set for a Woman Seeking A Man. Have your post title be in all caps and use the full length of its box and same goes for the location area. This makes it stand out really well amongst the other ads Post something that will catch a guys attention in the message and have them contact you

NOTE: Make sure you do not place a message too explicit or mention selling or money of any kind because you will get flagged fast. I tested this many times and it was only on my last try that I didn't get flagged

In the post have about 2 or 3 pictures of your fake girl When the guys contact you, social engineer them. I used a like like "Glad the ad caught ur eye, but right now im selling my pics to nice guys". Eventually, out of the many guys that contact you, people will fall for it. Use social engineering skills here, its not hard. promise them something they want but make them pay beforehand

NOTE:you can barter for them to send the money upfront using pics as ur selling product. I myself had the fake girl promise "a nice reward at their place for the generous buyers who paid for her pics ahead of time" Make sure they "gift" the money to ur paypal Use any location you want. it doesnt have to be an area u live in.

Well, its not a great tut but i'll get better with time. anyways, if anything needs clearing up i can explain it.

i sifted thru lots of buyers but ended up getting two that paid $50 and $30 for pics of a girl that doesn't really know them. hope this helps people. best for people who SE

Chronocide - September 8, 2012, 3:12 pm
