Thread: BreakDown Challenges v2 - Test your hacking skills

nigganigganigga - July 7, 2011, 8:10 am

Sometime ago I coded a sort of hackit website with ranking system, scoreboard etc. I finished it and added some hackits/challenges to solve. You got the possibility of test your skills and improve them.

URL: <http://m4rkz.altervista.org/breakdown/>

Tell me what do you think

If you want to develop hackits PM me.

If you got ideas on new hackits PM me.

Looks good Ill try it out in a bit.

DARKNESS CAESAR - July 7, 2011, 8:18 am

what do you mean?

do you mean that we try to hack it?

You try to "hack" the challenges that are on the site.

H0?p0ck3T - July 7, 2011, 9:11 am

lol can we cheat and use nessus? :P

I am having a bit of trouble registering never mind I think the problem was the "?". I changed it to a 7 and its fine now Keep dreaming :) I completed different challenges in hack forums, why you talk without even know anything? They are no so different things, when you develop you know what's going on and the vulnerability you are using.

Do you say developing is easy? Mhmm hello Mr.Batch user

Now go open a thread and ask for solutions for my website. You're really annoying..

When someone that GOT the rights to talk like faneq,surfed will pretend that I exit from the scoreboard, I'll take that in consideration. Until that time, you just really should exit from this topic and come back when you did them all.

Keep trying with filter evasions :)

atthebull - July 29, 2011, 2:33 am does the first one have to do with referrer agent?

Sad_Angel - July 31, 2011, 4:19 am grr... stucked at image upload..

anything to do with tamper data?

nigganigganigga - August 2, 2011, 2:42 am

Added level 20 (XSS filter bypass)

Reached 500 users!

Added specified solver list.
