Thread: HTC Trophy Generator v2 \(Halo Reach/Lode Runner/Kinect Sports\) - ONLINE VER. ADDED

Prince of Persia - July 8, 2011, 9:12 pm

Just go here: <https://microsoft.promo.eprize.com/verizonphone7/> and enter one of the generated MEID numbers and put in your email and then put in your information and you can choose which game you want. This is a simple application made in visual basic. I did make this program but I did not make this theme. All credits go to Marvinn and AeonHack for the theme. I am not sure if this is allowed in hackforums as it would be classified as PID but I have seen members give out these MEID's and there thread are still up. This is made for educational use only. I will not be held reliable for anything.

Every time I try it I get the message saying, "your email is already registered for this promotion". I've tried 3 different ones ... anyone else having this problem?

I think they actually require you to login to the verizon site now to use this.

I've ordered so many games to my neighbors houses... With their permission of course.

ventada - July 9, 2011, 10:59 pm

Hey all saw that some people where having trouble with bum codes and thought I would offer a solution that works. Go down to your local Best Buy, Verizon Store, Radio Shack, etc, and look up the MEID's on those phones to use. Some of the MEID's have a combination of letters and numbers so you can find a legit MEID and just change some of the numbers. Just thought I would help some people out that were having trouble.

Well it's up to eight per address but what you can do is 123 Abc Road switch it to 123 Abc RD.

hurmony - July 10, 2011, 8:37 am

It doesn't matter if it came from a legitimate phone. It won't increase your success rate. You never knew if someone already generated the MEID from that exact phone.
