Thank you very much for considering me!

Other than the no voting for yourself rule, are there any other rules to be followed such as signature linking or PMs?

Btw, here's the link to my application:

No, you can signature linking, but don't deliberately tell people to vote for you like via pm.

GuJJJu - July 19, 2011, 6:25 am

Honestly, i have not seen none of the member posted on the Polls so no idea who deserves to get L33T.

If you want to know who deserves it the most, go review the applications in the previous thread and make your decision off that.

GuJJu - July 19, 2011, 6:32 am

Ok, then i suppose Hasseo deserves to be Upgraded.

MaxX0r - July 19, 2011, 9:06 am

Hey thanks for considering me into this contest. I had a quick question voice, currently I am in a L33T contest which is ending today, if I win would you be willing to upgrade me to Ub3r or is this a L33T only contest. I am Ub3r approved and I have proof.

Gotcha. Well I mean if this is strictly a l33t contest and I win the other one today then I guess I'll opt my self out.

But until then let the games begin!

Haha for your information, I won the last contest, idling at 29 votes. I'm pretty sure if I hadn't won the last one it surely would have been this one. ;)

Immortal - July 19, 2011, 1:06 pm

I chose to vote for sami_shaikh because it looked as if he took some time making his application. Also, I went through his posts and he seems to be HQ.

I will vouch for Hasseo in the contest. He is a quality member who is very good at helping people in the OSX section along with myself. He is very knowledgeable and knows how to walk people through problems and just be an overall HQ member. Also, he has a lot of patience for new people pr people who have very simple problems.

khaleesi - July 19, 2011, 5:31 pm

Thanks for adding me in the poll, bro.

Biggrodd - July 19, 2011, 7:09 pm

Voted for sami_shaikh.

He has been wokring very hard to get l33t I think he deserves it.

Good luck to everyone too!

I can't upgrade anyone to ub3r. so if you win that, you're out of this one! :)

Polymath 1.0 - July 19, 2011, 8:12 pm

I vote for Hasseo. He is knowledgeable, informative, kind, patient and his posts are consistently High Quality. He goes out of his way to help and is an asset of rare and valued caliber to HF. He deserves to win :)
