Thread: xerotic Upgrade Contest Number 2

Xerotic - July 19, 2011, 5:56 pm

Previous Contest: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=1483323>

Alright guys, this time you have to nominate someone in the competition. You cannot nominate yourself.

So here is what you do..

If you see someone who deserves and upgrade to either l33t or Ub3r, post here who (link) and why.

Reason why this member should be upgraded:This member has a great amount of respect from me. A lot of members don't usually see him around because he is the heart of the Habbo Section. He contributes so much to members who lurk about the Habbo Section. He releases exploits of Habbo Hotel, he helps anyone and everyone who needs help with anything Habbo related and I believe he doesn't get the respect he deserves from members across these forums. He really deserves an upgrade to Ub3r. I can't think of anyone else that deserves it more then this member.

Reason why this member should be upgraded:This member is a very good GFX. The way he conducts himself, I could have sworn he was ub3r. I couldn't believe that he wasn't even l33t. He is very generous and nice. Ask anyone who knows him. He is a great member. He should definitely get l33t. He gives great CnC in the Graphic Masters subforum, and helps me and a lot of other members with GFX. He might just be the greatest non-tag designer on this site. He should definitely get l33t.

Reason why this member should be upgraded: Classy should be upgraded because he owns at graphics like it's his bitch, and he's a chill guy. He's fun to talk to and is a great help to the graphics section here on HackForums. He contributes to the graphics section by resources, and giving fair CnC. And even when they flame him, he doesn't do anything. Great guy, 'nuff said.

He is a high quality member who knows a lot. He tries to help anyone he can to the best of his ability and never complains about it. Not only does he help people, he does free graphics for people / Helps them learn what he knows. He also does not expect anything in return when helping people - Money, thanks, rep, Nothing at all.

He has also fallen on hard times recently and I believe this will cheer him up as it is something he has been wanting for a while but hasn't been able to get for him self. Will all the help he gives the members of the site, without ever complaining, I believe he is deserving of this.

English posts I have ever seen and has better English than me even though I am English and he is German. Also I refereed him here and taught him most black hat skills and he is very educated at training others how to design graphics and also will teach people some blackhat skills if you just view his threads to see how HQ his posts are etc (Remember he is German). Another reason is that hes not some 15 year old like me hes 18 which can be good as most the members here are like 15.

Reason why this member should be upgraded:I believe the member "imtiaze" should be nominated/upgraded to l33t because I feel that his genuine college intellect and forum contributions are worthy for such a recognition. He has shown me ways to believe in my self, such as "If it does turn out to be worth it sometime later, you'll have yourself to thank for surviving." He had helped me out in hard times in life, where I am very grateful :) Pretty much from the day we are born we're shaped by the world around us. I see imtiaze becoming more and more primitive and civilized as his contributions go on; I feel that I see him as the opposite of a symbolic authoritarian political leaders who murder to increase their own power. He is very good at English, from where he is lives etc. He can write amazing depressing short stories for my entertainment, Like the squalid temperament that I feel throughout my tepidly beating veins.

In essence, then, I can see that imtiaze is completely unique. Imtiaze represents true Christian understanding of the nature of evil; he represents the opposite of a totalitarian leader who use terror and commit evil acts for the sake of power. The fact that imtiaze splurges his free time here at hackforums indicates, perhaps, the pessimism he felt about the future of Hackforums humanity.

Not sure if this was a serious post... But if it was, then >.>.

How can you be more and more primitive AND civilized? Lol.

This isn't a presidential nominee.

Also,

Spoiler \(Click to View\) cool story bro
