Thread: Windows Logon

NinjaGeek - September 26, 2009, 8:19 am

So this is my new 80% finished logon....

Some size changing is stoping me to get it 100% done
inspired by Tinar and done how I like it thx...

Yeah it does... but it's still to much I'm gonna make it less visible

Yep i like it quite alot actually the grainy effect doesnt distract it just adds more to the color scheme

After your done, are you gonna let ppl download it? I probably will use it.lol. Looks pretty nice.

NinjaGeek - September 27, 2009, 2:29 am

Thanks Ya'll

And yes I will upload it somewhere ready for download

Inspired doesn't mean copying the EXACT design.. man! :/

Etheryte - September 27, 2009, 12:57 pm

I'd try changing the typography, if I were you. But maybe that's just me.

Don't shit.....

It was a fast work for a start.... Don't worry Tinar is only one I respect on the internet and his work... I have everything what he made and I'm copying his stuff (yes everything) to learn his technique.. I could upload more copies..

"and done how I like it" did you missed that if you look right it isn't the EXACT logon the one from Tinar is way BETTER

And by the way I'm glad you did find him and his work now instead of worry about what I do... go and show HIM some respect

@Etheryte

Yes I'm searching for a right font
