You should actually post what your doing is passing us a link to your forum then you are excepting us to make 10 - 20 posts before we can grab the link. Then when you tell him your not going to make 10 useless posts to just get the link, he tells you to Fuck off, when really he could just leave it at that.

Alright than fuck off.

So instead of fooling users how about you state, "Giving forum link which contains the download link, can only obtain download after making 10 posts." and I would have never even bothered to ask.

Fuck you. I contribute quite a bit to hf, and updated myself. Why should I give someone that won't contribute anything something for free? Especially something that isn't free. I paid for this list, and have no reason to give it out free to someone that contributes nothing, and mooches shit for free. The least you can do is a 5 minute survey, and earn me 35 cents. Enjoy the -3 rep. Don't pm me asking to remove it.
