I suggest you visit the white-hat section... More specifically, the HJT section.

Just go to the white hat section and scan your computer, also make a hard password.
YourPetsName@123 is not that secure.

Please read I am Infected! What to do? thread and follow the instructions listed in it and then make a new thread here with your result and logs. A HJT Helper will reply to your thread soon and will help you in disinfecting your PC.
