Thread: Graphical Threads -vs- Regular threads

Hot Chocolate - August 10, 2011, 12:33 pm

Let's have a hardcore discussion.

I personally HATE graphic threads; I think they look horrible & uneasy to read. I always preferred BlackShades old-style threads (for example), with the regular text instead of graphic shit.

Graphic Threads; cool & awesome

Regular Threads: Boring..

xdzain - August 10, 2011, 12:35 pm

Yes ! i agree with you !!

?Cooldude? - August 10, 2011, 12:35 pm

I don't mind graphical threads, as long as the font isn't hideously hard to read.

Sno Fear - August 10, 2011, 12:36 pm

Some graphic threads are really enjoyable to read, but some are not.

I personally don't have strong opinion about that.

Sobriety - August 10, 2011, 12:37 pm

As long as it's professionally made with readable fonts etc, I prefer graphical threads.

I love how Cryptex's thread turned out.

That thread doesn't look too good either. Stupid font + words with different colours.

BlackHops - August 10, 2011, 1:18 pm

I think some pics and color are alright, but I hate when the thread iis one giant image with all the writing in it because then they never fix their typos

I like Graphical Threads because it's more attracting to buyers and looks more professional.

Graphical thread: Looks good if people work on it for a while.
