Thread: Post your XOR encryption, Triple XOR for decryption *Conditions Apply.

KALKI - August 12, 2011, 6:35 am

Post your XOR encrypted hashes with key here.. I will decrypt them as soon as possible. Don't PM me with your key

*Condition:

Post any other XOR Key which will not harm the programs and threads of HF member.

Now stop decrypting triple XOR. If you continue it, believe me I am gonna put MD5 hashes immediately.

That's hell easy if you use your brain.

Triple xor? Do you mean switching variables like this?

a = a^b;

b = a^b;
a = a^b;

Are you kidding? Stupid leecher stop flood this topic with the intention to have the code "Support TM" to use his crypter! You do not deserve it. Besides, I see a lot of French who have responded to this topic with the intention to have the decryption code of "Support TM," but you do not even read the conditions contained in the first post in the topic.

norboost - August 23, 2011, 4:39 am

Could you please pm me a short step by step in how to do this (like key - hex - dec - bin, pass - dec - bin, xor) , I'm going close to insane here because I KNOW this should be easy. If we're taking the post above as an example then I'm kinda lost since the key is shorter than the password, should I just repeat the key or is there something else to it?

Post any other XOR Key which will not harm the programs and threads of HF member."

and im assuming theres a reason why coders dont just post direct links, ive not a clue how to do at the moment but people that do know are saying its easy so ill give it ago, but if anyone as any pointers it would be appreciated, thanks.

Can anyone please explain to me [in human language] , how to decrypt XOR?
And what does Triple XOR decryption mean/how it's done.

I'll do it myself then , thanks in advance.
