I edited this theme from Perplexity's YouTube Theme.
I redid all the colors.

Enjoy!

O.O

I just finished my first theme.

Looks nice, try making the gradient something like:

Code DrawGradient(Color.BlueViolet, Color.Blue, 0, 0, Width, 20, 90S)

Thanks and I did make it gradient.
Look at the Pastebin

Nice to see somebody using my theme.
But I'm not too sure about the color scheme.

The grey-white gradient doesn't fit with the green.

Nice attempt though :3

Yeah, but if I made the background all green, it would strain your eyes.
It's still good color combinations for me

Actually kind of a unique color mixture you got rolling there, nice.

Svarteman - August 19, 2011, 4:44 pm

I only like the design. But I can't compliment you for that with the thought in mind that perplexity made it.

Thanks! Someone who agrees with me :)

Hope you enjoy the theme =D

Nice color combination, but maybe it will look a little better if the background was more silver-like.

Agreed, I myself like more of the darker themes, But this is "OK".. I hope it's you're first theme though.

Yeah this is my real official first theme.

I'm learning as I go

SoulZeh - August 19, 2011, 8:59 pm

nice man :) added this to my theme list, keep up the good work

Pr4wn - August 20, 2011, 12:06 am

I've never used any of these themes so I'm kind of curious if this is going to change more than just buttons, progress bar and the border. Hate to ask when I could try it myself but I literally just installed windows 7 and haven't added any compilers yet. Other than that, looks nice.

It's still good color combinations for meTry making it white, like a regular theme, then make the green a bit yellowish.

Good job anyhow. ?

The MammoTh - August 20, 2011, 12:54 am

Not really my style but it looks okay I guess.
