Just look the reason of my rep... Some member are pissed off because i put Shitcash link to download something and they rage so they -rep me... If you dont want to believe me it's not my problem, you just loose an active member...

Sometimes uber & leet feel to have power and they goes mad and when they dislike a thing -rep automatically... It's quite sad cause this forum is good, but the rep system is really crap and easily abusable...

Well you can simply put the reason...there is no need to blaming l33t & ub3r member..and member should be polite....why you are pissed off...when i reject application that does not mean i m ignoring them....At that time i have watch on that member....

Sometimes reason for the rejection is tier of the country....though i m allowing all country but i want to balance tier 1 and low tier country...

Ibrahimovic - November 13, 2011, 10:31 am

Okay but Canada is in the tier 1.... I understand you to forbid low tier countries...

Name: Billy Rowe

Country: United States of America!

Age: 19

Have you been in another Exchange Group Before : Yes, the IRC group and the palringo group about 1 year and a half ago

Which account you have AdSense , BT : BidTraffic. For some reason, I was banned from AdSense after I stopped using the IRC group. It was like 6 months that I stopped, and then they banned me. I got paid from them though. I used BidTraffic, VIP+, and got about $150 paid out, and have $48 in my balance.

Other Info : I'm active and honest and trustworthy.

My -rep was because one, I bought the $100 eBay method, and asked how I can report this eBay listing, and the other rep someone just was giving everyone negative rep. I was interested in selling a limited PayPal account of mine, because saw someone else do it - and he assumed it was hacked. Looking at his -rep, you can see he was giving everyone -rep for no apparent reason.

You will donate to this group (from your earning): Sure, I can also provide services like IRC using my VPS's!

Hope I get accepted! I'm willing to exchange with people right now! If you PM me, I can show you my account so you know I'm legit! Also, let me know if you had always had this group. You type like the person that had this Palringo group a while ago.

Also, where are the top keywords? They used to have a link where you can see the top paying keyword... now it's gone. :-/
