I would like to take this gamer tag of your hands if it bothers you much, because i have always wanted another account, so i could give it to my little brother, because my wee brother keeps messing my shit up on mine.

Problem? - September 3, 2011, 7:31 pm

I would really like this tag, because my main, a 2 letter one, was frozen and locked by an idiot i bought from here, as u can see i did a thread about it... and i would like a new main if possible... because i cant really afford one with a good name lol, because i have to pay for live... so basically winning this, could solve many problems... :) thanks for doing this whether i win or not.
