Isn't the button text a little off lol? Other than that it actually looks pretty cool.

Man that has nothing to do with tennis anyway you button = 1/10 because the writing is not on the middle

Doctor07 - September 4, 2011, 1:52 am

Not bad dude, But the text on the Buttons is poorly aligned.

Umm, he explained that in the post above yours.

OP@ I like the theme itself with the dark colors but how about adding some more controls ? Other than that, it's a pretty neat theme.

Dally180 - September 4, 2011, 2:12 am

Not another theme. It looks good except the text is a bit off.

I am also working on themes right now, like 4-5 themes. They all are darkish themes. Dark Themes For The WIN!
