Sejskaler - September 6, 2011, 5:55 am

Hey.

So i came thinking, the little minecraft forum just got their own group :D

So, well, why can't we?

I mean, we have 2 subgroups, why not unite and get ourself a shiny userbar?

I will not pm omni, before i get feedback, i want to know if you guys are in for this, i mean, it would be a waste of work if i did convince him and you guys did not want it.

So, who are on for giving it a try, and if people would tell me if i should pm omni about it ^_^
Also, co-leaders would be great :D

So, anyone on for this?

Yugen - September 6, 2011, 6:05 am

I want to be in this for sure. You have my aproval sir. If it get's to omni i want in :)

Rythm - September 6, 2011, 6:26 am

Well, I don't think I have the right to give my opinion on this since I am pretty new around here but it sounds like a great idea to me.

But like I mentioned, I can't really say much about it and I have no idea how it goes with the two groups around here so I wouldn't know what the members of the groups would think about this.

Altogether, I encourage the idea but I don't have the right to voice my opinion about it since I am quite new ^^.

Yuusha - September 6, 2011, 6:43 am

Nyx- tried and it pretty much ended up being no group but a forum section, oh and I vaguely remember something about "Still want a group? pay $2k".

Tasemu - September 6, 2011, 7:27 am

Many people have tried this including me, we were the first people to find out about omni's plan to charge $2000 for a group.

Happeh - September 6, 2011, 7:32 am

We tried this, unless we can raise 2k I doubt it'd happen. I personally Pm'd him.

Hailow - September 6, 2011, 7:35 am

Why do we need a group, we already have some what of a sub forum but accept it's not exclusive...

Layfon - September 6, 2011, 7:42 am

He charges like $2000 per usergroup though...

I am up for this, Discussed + tried it before. And the other 2 groups aren't official so they can do what they want xD but yeah... It would be epic.

btw I nominate myself for co-owner ^^

Tasemu - September 6, 2011, 8:29 am

Im happy without a userbar that costs us $2000 bucks. With that kind of cash we can buy something better than a userbar im sure.

Sejskaler - September 6, 2011, 8:35 am

Oh, i did not knwo about the $2000 bucks thing...

Well, no matter what, i am going to give it a try.

Its atleast worth another try?

Well, i am close to ticking him off, so getting close to a ban, is making me hold back for this time...

I am really sorry guys, but for this time, i have failed...

Also, calling him won't help our case.

No, i do think that a good chat would make me understand his decisions, of making money of it better.

Also, i think that it would be possible to tell him my meanings of that it is wrong.

I may be dreaming, but i like to dream ;)

[animeFAN!] Shana - September 7, 2011, 1:36 am

All Omni's asking for from groups right now it seems is money and respect. He's a no bullshit kind of guy in my opinion so he wouldn't listen to anything but his requirements. What OP and the rest of us should be thinking about is if we need a new mod.

Sejskaler - September 7, 2011, 2:24 am

Shana, yes, i do have alot of respect for Omni, and that is also why i want to talk to him, if i ever get the possibility, because i could maybe get some influence on him, after as he seems to be a nice guy, which listen.

[animeFAN!] Shana - September 7, 2011, 2:52 am

I understand where you're coming from but it's hard to get the best influence on Omni as AA doesn't appear to be in the limelight, not sure if we're even on Omni's good side.

Well, even though, i will still "fight for justice" if you can say that.

I am not saying i would directly go critcising him, but rather talk with him like civilisated humen.

Also, i would not only talk about the groups, but also talk about that we need an admin in here, because we really do.

I do not know if Omni likes anime, or are towards us, but we can only hope for the best.

Tasemu - September 7, 2011, 2:59 am

Sej, its not gonna happen man, donate 500 bucks and get the master donator award, then he might consider talking to you. You gotta understand that everyone thinks "if i could talk to omni etc etc etc" but its time to come back to reality brother. Also we shouldnt be focusing on a new mod at the moment because omni is just as if not more skeptical of that idea.

On top of this, you should not PM omni at all, you have been here since dec 1010, have under 50 rep and like 1k posts. Thats all fine and good but when omni's sees your pm he wont take you seriously.

What we SHOULD be focusing on is how each of us ourselves can help contrubute high quality content to the AA section so the community can continue to prosper. I and a few others still remember a long tme ago when it was uncommon to see more than 5 new posts a day in AA. It has come a long way but still has further to go. THIS should be out goal, not a shiny bloody picture under our name or a mod.

Anyway this is my final thoughts on the subject, keep going in circles for a few more pages if you guys want to.

Well, i see your point, and i know that everyone thinks that if they could just talk to Omni, bla bla bla.

And that is why, i thought about doing this some time before posting it.

I do understand that Omni is mostly focussing on higher rank users, and by that mean, i do not stand a chance, that is why this was a "dream achievement" for me, thereby i did only do it for hope, and i will not give up, but contact him when i have more respect.

I must agree with you that higher quality content is the 1# goal for AA, and thereby i would recommend an admin to sort out the trolls.

I do only want the userbar, for the reason that i can show my pride of bein AA a little more.

Well, you my sir, is surely 1 of the respectful members of here, because you can argue with what you are saying, and DOES it.

Well, i get your point, and that is why i will call this "experiment" a fail, and by that, i will say, that an admin would still be good for this part of the forum, since nyx- lost his status, we have gotten more trolls etc.

Well, thanks for your opinion ^_^
