Thread: [\[RELEASE\] \[VB.NET & C#\] The Black Theme \[TWO THEMES\]](#)

hav0c1995 - September 6, 2011, 10:11 am

Below are the images of the "Black Theme v1" and "Black Theme v2":

The links to the source codes are:

[The Black Theme v1 \[VB.NET\]](#)

[The Black Theme v2 \[VB.NET\]](#)

[The Black Theme v1 \[C#\]](#)

[The Black Theme v2 \[C#\]](#)

How to install it:

Add a new class to your existing project. Then replace the code with this [Theme Base 1.5.1 \[VB.NET\]](#) or [Theme Base Base 1.5.1 \[C#\]](#) (You know what to do!) and then under it, add my theme's code in it and then build your project. And then, you will get the controls in the toolbox.

Note:

Both of the themes contains four controls which are button, top-button, label and the theme itself. Credits goes to me for coding it, AeonHack for his theme base, xZ3ROxPROJ3CTx for the top-button and SoulZeh for posting the C# Version of the "Black Theme v2". Give credits wherever you use the themes. I hope you guys really like it. Give your feedback about both of 'em.

V2 Is WAYYY Better dude, Now that is a theme i would use :D

SoulZeh - September 6, 2011, 10:12 am

nice man :) but they look kinda the same tbh but suppose that is just my opinion

The Unknown - September 6, 2011, 10:13 am nice, now I donno why I liked V1 more then V2 , lol... thanks for sharing man...

I like V1 better. But I would recommend giving them a bit more texture. Thanks!

Yeah, will sure. But not now. I am late for something.

Jastro - September 6, 2011, 11:05 am

They look cool, think you can make a version for c#?

hav0c1995 - September 6, 2011, 11:06 am

That is so simple, man. Just use the below converter for it.
<http://www.developerfusion.com/tools/convert/csharp-to-vb/>

SoulZeh - September 6, 2011, 11:07 am

here is the c# version for v2

No problem mate ;) wasn't hard to convert ;P
you should put it on your thread for people to get it

But, I think this is the wrong section for it. I might post it in the C# sub-forum. What do you think?

The Unknown - September 6, 2011, 11:15 am lol, SoulZeh I just liked the way you helped that guy and respond to OP, even if your help was pretty, mmm, little... lol... You got my respect...

Jastro - September 6, 2011, 11:17 am

Thanks for the help guys. :)

Let me convert both of them, then. I know how to do it.

Penthos - September 6, 2011, 1:13 pm

Looks great just tried it out, Personally its version 1 for me :)

Keep up the great work, And credits where credits are due, if i use your theme i will leave all credits in. its only fair :P

jafer_khan123 - September 7, 2011, 4:30 am

I waited for this theme for like two days. JUST JOKING! :) I like the v2.

Looks nice! I think it would look even better if you add some more gradients.

You're a Baws.

Invictuz789 - September 9, 2011, 8:22 pm

i'm having problems with the colorblend, it says its not defined

Because you haven't added the theme base. Send me your TeamViewer details to make the theme work for you.
