Spideys design caught my eyes first, but both were good this time.

Both fucking wide as fuck.

So wide it will give you a sore ass when that shit rapes you from being awesome.!

Both really good But kings' signature looks best as I can't even see what the fuck is going on in the other.

Nice, hard to vote (if i could lol) on which one. I'd wanna see some more saturation/color from King's but spidey's is a bit too monotone for me, render might blend in a bit too much. But spidey's has a more hq look to it and interesting depth and focal. King's has a nice rebellious look to it that I like as well. I guess its a good thing I can't vote lol Good entries guys

They both look really good but King gets my vote

This is a really tough one.

Spidey's blends well, but King's just looks good.
