Layfon - September 30, 2011, 6:58 am

While fox is yet to make the official thread when server is finished. I am just making a small discussion threads for aacraft where we can discuss stuff like sales/stuff you want to buy etc. And I noticed AACraft going down daily for a while when Fox is doing his stuff so I have kinda gotten bored.

anyway discuss?

I recently added powered rails to my public mine :D You can go there from that huge tower

Under construction is the item shop I am making.

Making an ore/more shop, tell me what yall want me to sell and what prices you deem reasonable. I will then ignore your advice and only sell what I want at the prices I want. Thanks for all your suggestions! ;)

Lost all my stuff, so I've kinda lost a bit of motivation to play. Been getting into other games as well. But I'll probably be back again soon. My interests change constantly.

Oh! That'd help. Though I'll still probably wait till I suddenly get the urge to play again to join.

I got a house, built a tunnel to a huge cavern. My MC Life is complete. Not sure what to do next.

It does. I'll finally stop being stolen from once I decide to play again. =/ Seems I'm always the first to get my stuff stolen. XD

Feathers

String

Well @ Black Hole

the ores/ingots you have are fine, prices are maybe 250 dollarish less than what /iteminfo gives but yeah, they are reasonable. I haven't been able to sell you my ingots for some reason... I don't get it.

But I am opening a item shop, where I will be selling maps, compasses, clocks, diamonds. Oh and if you guys ever get slime balls, sticky/non sticky pistons, I will buy them.

Hrm I was thinking of selling diamonds. As for the ingots, it's r-click buy l-click sell. What is the error message that it gives you?
