interkiwiweb - October 27, 2011, 2:36 am

this is autosurf traffic and people can just log onto these sites, set them up and forget them while they are running all night. I used these for a while but I realised I never got any "real" visitors and after I stopped using sites like this I started getting conversions...

K4OS - November 1, 2011, 7:44 pm

they are real visiteres this traffic is used for to get on top of google or something.

K4OS - January 7, 2012, 8:09 pm

it's on the Click here in the thread.

nZgSolice - January 7, 2012, 8:22 pm

I did the same method with a different site,
but I cant just rely on different types of traffic,
like different bots just kept registering to my site,
spamming all over the community board.

What I am looking for, are the unique entries.

K4OS - January 19, 2012, 2:19 am dont think this is unique traffic but u can email the owner and ask if u upgrade if its unique

Dollar - January 19, 2012, 3:13 am

This site is legit. I've use it many times.

K4OS - January 26, 2012, 7:28 pm

yep this site is very good im upgraded so ya XDD

So... - January 27, 2012, 11:31 am

Site is very good, rates are a little overpriced in my opinion. Make sure you view this through sandboxie, there are potentially harmful sites.

K4OS - January 29, 2012, 12:13 pm

This site is a pretty knownd site so i mean this is only for people that still dont know about it and i mean i dont think it will contain a virus it has over 70k+ members

HoodiboY - January 29, 2012, 12:18 pm

upgrading there is good for those who have money with them..

K4OS - January 29, 2012, 12:24 pm
