Giving away a minecraft account for free, no downloads etc. All you have to do is post here saying why you deserve the account, and whoever deserves it the most will win!

Could i have it please?

I need to so i can play online with my friends, when i get enough money ill give it back and buy one :)

I think I deserve it because I will then give it away to another person >.<

I've actually been trying to get a spare account for my cousin. He's desperately wanting an account for his birthday (and honestly, I don't have anything for him yet). I would like to get this for him!

Thanks in advance and Good luck to all the contestants.
