Those are really good. They have so upfront meanings but are backed up with hidden meanings that support the truth. Nice job!

The second video was pretty cool when it talked about mass meditation. And ya, fear blocks us from achieving, when really we have nothing to fear.

You have a video with 1 million views. Impressive man, even though it is a re upload :D

Anyone have a university link or research paper on the pyramids in Europe? All the info I can find on the subject are from sub-standard sources. It was mentioned in the 2012- Message of Hope video. As much as I'd like to believe and hope for the greater good of humanity these videos tend to do like our national media, ie. take only parts of information and piece it together to fit their view presenting a false image.

Lol! Another one wasting their life to the 2012 shit-ligious beliefs. Get a life, people.

The second video is heartwarming. :)

God bless you all.
