Thread: Why isn't this LQP banned?

kamz89 - November 8, 2011, 8:59 pm

This user has a lot of LQ posts and their sig has been removed which means this user hasn't read the help documents and is constantly breaking the HF rules. A normal guy would post LQ hardly once a day, but this user tries his hardest to make all his posts LQ.

Why don't I report it directly to a mod?

- 1- No mod is currently Online
- 2- 80% of this users posts have been reported but no action

Theres alot worse users than this one.

And I bet half of the people who post in the Tuts post this.

You're right and some of them add colors to their text to increase their characters count.

I actually reported one of his posts a few minutes ago.

Report it to a staff member, even if they're not on. This is not urgent.

Ok reported via pm to a staff member and hoping the member is removed Nice find. Wait and staff will see this though and fix him up.
