The usual, just humans being as humans are abusing there power over someone who they see fit as inferior or they define as weak. Such arrogant creatures.

edwardj7337 - November 16, 2011, 4:48 pm

This is just sad, I really can't stand watching the father cry. Stupid teacher shouldn't be teaching in the first place.

shqiponje97 - November 16, 2011, 6:37 pm

I wanna point out that these teachers lost their job(i think?) but in my school and probably most school if a kid is accused for bullying they are charged with a lot more... potentially even going to juvie.

Xelteam - November 16, 2011, 7:33 pm

bunch of fuckers who should have their teaching liscence revoked permentantly, so their financial future is fucked.

Professor Genki - November 17, 2011, 1:40 am

Wow... those two teachers need to fired. Kids bullying kids is already a problem but Teacher's bullying kids?? Horrible!

Jolty - November 17, 2011, 7:05 am

It angers me so much how some people can have such little compassion for others. ?

Back in India I had a classmate like this, although I never made fun of him I didn't like to be his friend ether, because he use to be a bully him self. He use to like get in fights with little kids and get away with it because he was special. Hell in 5th twice he shit his pants. But yeah never made fun of for being special and there was on time where I actually took his side because he was about ot get kicked out of school for fighting the 14th time and I said I heard the other kid making fun of him and then the fight broke out. So he didn't get kicked out. But this is different I am speechless because its the teachers who bullied not the students. I mean cmon they fucking adults.
