The edition you are currently reading is the 67th full edition. To read any older editions of HF News, please go here.

A couple of notices: The news will be released on Wednesdays.

[img]http://goo.gl/utY40[/img] Removing Thread Views

Omniscient removed view count because of bidders botting their threads for more views--which was also another form of DDoSing Hack Forums. The tool was overused and all it simply did was count how many views your thread had received. You can still view your threads view count by going to your User CP and if you want to see another thread's views, you can subscribe and go to subscribed threads to view that thread's count.

MyTweets

Our owner decided to add the MyTweets plugin to Hack Forums after its success on Support Forums. A benefit of MyTweets being added is that now people can view Omniscient's profile and see the official Hack Forums twitter feed. It also makes it easier for people to share what's going on, almost like a note plugin.

New Buttons

There has also been a change in the postbit buttons to increase loading times for threads. They are now CSS buttons and for a few they taking quite some time to upload on your browser, but when they do, you'll be impressed.

Reverence Coders

The well known group, Reverence has dropped the coders section from the group completely. The exact reasoning for it has not been exposed but it's down to the lack of commitment from the coders themselves, if they had put the effort in, then maybe this wouldn't have happened.

DDoSing Hack Forums and Downtime

Hack Forums recently got ddosed at three gigabytes per seconds, but that wasn't the reason behind the whole nine hours of down time. This was also one of the longest down times Hack Forums has had in such a long time. Many missed the downtime as it was morning PST and mid day in GMT time zones so a large chunk of the members were asleep.

"How do you feel about the Marketplace and how it runs?"

"Currently, the marketplace is full of people who are honest and willing to trade, but there is always something to ruin this peace. Scammers hide in the Marketplace and there is not much that people can do about it. I am going to be using the (now closed) account "Legitti" for an example. The HF Help Docs says, and I quote-Our staff on occasion will ban a scammer, if the evidence is on site and apparent. however Legitti had SIXTEEN scam reports on him. Omniscient Himself and I'd him saying not to trust him, yet he never got banned. I personally think that there needs to be a harsher action taken against scammers in the Marketplace, but that is just my opinion."

-+Pirate

"I personally think the Marketplace is a great section. It gives people the opportunity to make money online and expand their horizons. I personally use it frequently, as many things are reasonably priced. Many people will point out the problem of scamming, but I don't see the issue. Scamming is wrong of course, but each time you make a deal, you need to realize the potential.

The rules state pretty clearly that you deal at your own risk. As always, read the rules and staff classy, Hack Forums."

-Michael Westen

The topic for next week is "How do you feel about Scam Reports and how they work in to the Marketplace?"

To send in your entries for the next edition, PM Sir.

[img]http://goo.gl/rDAeD[/img] "Nuclear Winter" NBA Lockout

Are you ready for some basketball? Too bad. The NBA season is in danger of being canceled entirely after talks between the owners and players "completely broke down," players' union executive director Billy Hunter told the Wall Street Journal. The union not only rejected the owners' latest offer but has started the legal process of disbanding, moving the dispute from the negotiating table into the court system. The union said it plans to file an antitrust lawsuit against the league in the next day or two. In an interview on ESPN's SportsCenter, league commissioner David Stern did not say he would cancel the season, but admitted it was in jeopardy. "We're about to go into the nuclear winter of the NBA." The players' move came after Stern last week laid out a final offer that would have split the league's basketball revenues 50-50 between players and owners. Under the old deal, the players got 57 percent. If the players had accepted it, a 72-game season would have begun Dec. 15. Instead the union rejected it, with executive director Billy Hunter saying, "The players were not prepared to accept any ultimatums. They thought it was extremely unfair."

Suspect in shooting near White House arrested

A man with an apparent obsession with President Barack Obama has been arrested in Pennsylvania after the Secret Service discovered two bullets struck the White House while the president was away, authorities said Wednesday. One bullet smashed into a window of the living quarters of the executive mansion but was stopped by ballistic glass. The arrest of Oscar Ramiro Ortega-Hernandez, 21, came days after reports of shots fired on Friday night near the White House while Obama and his wife Michelle were on a trip to California and Hawaii. The president has since traveled on to Australia, second stop on a nine-day Asia-Pacific tour, and the White House had no comment on the unfolding events. The U.S. Secret Service said it discovered Tuesday that the two bullets hit the White House. U.S. Park Police had earlier linked Ortega, a 21-year-old man from Idaho Falls, Idaho, to the reports of gunfire.

Interview - Reliable (Click to View)

Michael Westen: Hey Reliable - Thanks a million for doing this interview with me!

Reliable: Not a problem Michael, thanks so much for giving me this opportunity!

Michael Westen: Sure! Before we start the interview, I'm sure you have some shoutouts you'd like to give.

Reliable: Of course. I'd like to make a shoutout to the fellas at Plague Booter, Suhinder and the guys at FuZioN Crypter. Also I'd like to give a personal thank you to Designer and NRD because they've always been there for me in times of great need. Also to the staff at Epic Web Hosting. Thanks for helping me all you guys.

Michael Westen: That's quite the list, I can see you're very active in a variety of products! I understand your the FuZioN Crypter manager, what's that like?

Reliable: It's quite different. I like the staff there. They are very reasonable and extremely nice. Also the crypter's going to be a HUGE SUCCESS. As support manager I have quite a few jobs. Including the setting up the Live Support and Ticketing systems.

It's going to be a bit tough, but I'll enjoy it. The FuZioN Crypter Team hopes to have everything ready by saturday.

Michael Westen: That sounds awesome - Live support is a great feature for any product. I know you manage FuZioN Crypter, but what do you do with the product "Plague Booter?"

Reliable: I don't do much with that just the owners are really nice and I thought I'd give them a shoutout because they have also helped me a bit throughout the last couple of weeks. Their great people and I enjoy talking to them on Skype.

Michael Westen: Definately - I've spoken with Suhinder once or twice and he seems great. I see you're a member of the yellow team (Leet), what inspired you to take that oh so important step?

Reliable: Well, when I first joined HF I didn't really know what "hacking" was. I figured a few things out on my own and had some people help me with others (NRD). I saw that HF is actually a great community. It has all the different sections possible on a forum. Eroticism, Hacking, Downloads, Selling, Hosting, Trading, Gaming, etc. It has everything and I thought that was amazing. I'd never seen a forum like it. All the forums I was on previously were Game Hacking forums. I knew how to hack in video games.

Then I found HF. Ratting still isn't SUCH amazing hacking but it's still so much better than hacking in a crappy game like Combat Arms

(No offense to all CA players). So when I saw that HF was this awesome forum, I decided to join.

Then I started my web hosting business....

and I made some money. Then I thought to myself, "HF made me this money.... least I could do is buy L33T , plus it would help the business....

Michael Westen: For sure - HF has a huge marketplace, especially for web hosting and the such. I know your active in the Marketplace, but what is your favorite section?

Reliable: I would have to say my Favourite section would be the Free Services Section. I think it's great to see people sharing with the community, it's great to see that people are willing to give back to the community. I've shared there quite a few times myself. I am currently giving away HMA Proxy listings, daily.

Michael Westen: Very cool - I love that we still have members who do stuff out of the kindness of their heart. You seem to cover the entirety of the Marketplace, do you see yourself becoming even more active in it? Perhaps selling more products or something?

Reliable: Well I hope to expand my horizons soon. Epic Web Hosting is getting a VERY VERY POWERFUL VPS in the next few days and we hope to have quite a few customers coming from it. Hopefully when that happens, we'll start selling other products and such. I am also trying to get money so I'll be selling other things on the side.

Michael Westen: Sounds exciting - Be on the look out for that guys!v Aside from HF, what other things do you take interest in?

Reliable: Well I enjoy watching movies. A lot. And I also enjoy chilling with friends and playing video games. I'm also starting to enjoy school... who would have thought that would happen right?

Michael Westen: Ouch, I know I definately don't like school! What are your top 5 favorite movies?

Reliable: I do as a matter of fact. I love reading. 1984 was a great book. I've talked to people who hate books and prefer movies.

Then they read a book that was made before the movie and they love the book way more. Also I find books are magical. If you have a good imagination, like myself, you can see literally EVERYTHING you read in your mind. It's amazing. So to all HF'ians out there, read a book but make sure it's an interesting subject.

Michael Westen: Definately some great advice for the members out there! That's wraps it up for me, do you have anything else you want to say?

Reliable: Yea. Just a couple of more shoutouts. I'd like to say hello to all the Canadians here on HackForums. I also want to say hi to the guys at RebelSecurity and all my clients at Epic Web Hosting. Now last but not least I'd like to thank YOU so much Michael, for giving me this opportunity. I really appreciate and look forward to another opportunity like this again! Thanks so much.

Interview - Bentley (Click to View)

Michael Westen: Hey Bentley! Thanks for taking the time out to do this interview!

Bentley: Okay.

Michael Westen: For sure! Before we get started, do you have any special people that deserve a shout out?

Bentley: Shout out to Polymath 1.0 and Michael Westen, haha.

Michael Westen: Alright, cool. What made you decide to join Hack Forums?

Bentley: Um, I actually joined to buy a booter, I know it sounds noobish. I thought it was cool and was kind of a DDoS kiddy. I also joined it because I liked the theme of Hack Forums. It was different and better than TheBotNet. There also wasn't a lot of spam at the time and seemed like fun!

Michael Westen: Very cool - I joined because a friend showed me the site, and he's regretted it every since. What is your favorite part of Hack Forums?

Bentley: My favorite part of Hack Forums? Hmm, I really enjoy the Lounge. I would have to say I spend most of my time in the VIP area, there's not too many people and I really enjoy it.

Michael Westen: The goals you had coming into Hack Forums, as far as DDoSing and generally have fun, have they been accomplished to your satisfaction?

Bentley: I would have to say all of them have been accomplished, mostly because I got uber. I always thought Uber was cool, every since the day I joined. The blue username was really a big icon for Hack Forums.

Michael Westen: HF has gone through a few changes lately - Do you have any ideas you see beneficial to Hack Forums?

Bentley: I would definitely like to see Ubers having the ability to move their own threads. I think it'd be a lot quicker, and might save Staff and Mentors a little bit of time. I would also like to see a total revamp of the userbars attributed with official HF usergroups. I also think he should give people the ability to create their own themes that they could use and pick from on a menu.

Michael Westen: Definately, but I think I would use the good 'ol theme we have now. Where do you see yourself in 5 years, as far as Hack forums goes?

Bentley: Well if HF happens to be up in 5 years, I would definately still be an active member. I'd love to see what HF is like in 5 years!

Michael Westen: Do you see yourself having any position among staff/administration if you were to be a member in 5 years?

Bentley: I'd probably say no because I'm one of however many people, so the odds aren't really with me! I honestly don't think Omniscient wouldn't pick me over Nokia or someone like that.

Michael Westen: Well hey, you can always hope, right? What is your opinion of the current staff of Hack Forums?

Bentley: Um, well some of them are really bitchy to be honest. There are also a few who I don't see ever, I think the inactive staff, admins, and mentors should be replaced.

Michael Westen: I agree - There are tons of members and only a few people to contain them all. How did you come up with your username?

Bentley: Obviously because I love Bentleys! :)

Michael Westen: I thought there might be a little bit more, but Bentleys are definitely the way to go. Thanks for taking the time for this interview. Do you have any closing remarks?

Bentley: Just to read the rules, it'll save your ass!

[img]http://i1214.photobucket.com/albums/cc499/HFGenuine/horoscopes.png[/img]

These horoscopes were not written by us as we don't have the ability nor knowledge to do so.

Aquarius: (Click to View)

To say your gonads are in overdrive for the next year is putting it mildly. You're definitely going to be hot to trot! Sex will become a fixation for some of you right up until next winter. (Gasp. Buy sexy underwear.) Actually, Mars will make you feel passionate about many aspects of your life simply because Mars will hugely increase and enhance your passions! However, Mars will also make you more of a fighte when it comes to defending your own interests with inheritances, shared property, insurance matters, taxes and debt. Remind yourself to be fair and accommodating. (Mars is a strong ego planet.)

Pisces: (Click to View)

Perhaps more than any other sign, you face the greatest challenge with this very unusual sojourn of Mars in one sign for the next eight months. I say this because Mars is going to oppose you. Whenever Mars opposes you (generally only for seven weeks every two years) it heightens the potential for conflict with partners and close friends. But hey - this doesn't have to happen! Mars does tend to make you feel easily annoyed with others and ready to call them on something even if they're not aware of what they're doing.

Admittedly, it can attract aggressive people to you as well. So it's a tough call who is actually starting the argument. Your best bet is to consider this an opportunity to demonstrate grace under pressure and learn more about how to relate to partners and good friends.

Aries: \(Click to View\)

This unusual phenomenon of Mars in one sign for eight months will interest you because Mars is your ruler.

(That's why you're the warrior of the zodiac.) Fear not, this doesn't mean you have to saddle up, lock and load. Au contraire! It means you'll be totally psyched on becoming more efficient in every aspect of your life.

You'll work super hard to make your job and personal life become better organized. Do not hesitate. Get with the program. Purchase the right tools and materials to do a great job. Buy cleaning equipment, paint, shelving, file folders - whatever you need. Make it happen. You also can use the next eight months to really boost your health as well. (Lucky you!)

Taurus: \(Click to View\)

Dear Taurus. While this unusual duration of Mars in one sign causes havoc in the lives of some, for you, it's your chance to kick back, relax and have a great time! Since you love your creature comforts (good food, good wine, good sex and a nice place to live) this is great news! From now until the autumn of 2012, enjoy vacations, appreciate the arts (musical performances, movies, dance and the theatre) and immerse yourself in the thrill of sports. Playful activities with children will also be big on your agenda. And let us not forget love affairs and romance! Just remember that Mars is energy. Use it to enjoy these areas or waste it fighting about them. Your call.

Gemini: \(Click to View\)

It's important to remember Mars is pure energy. You can use it to fight or to work. Like a hammer, it can kill someone or build a house. It's important to remember this distinction and be aware of how to use this burst of energy that hypes you until the autumn of 2012. (Make it work for you.) I say this because Mars will activate your home and family life. This means you can use this energy to renovate, repair and fix up where you live. O do special things for family members to please and delight them. Or you can use this energy to fight with everyone at home. What's it going to be? (Gee, that's a no-brainer.)

Cancer: \(Click to View\)

Some signs have an easier choice of how to use the energy of Mars. Unfortunately, you're not one of them. Mars will make all your communications with others more direct, lively and aggressive. ("I say what I mean and I mean what I say.") The positive use of this energy is to channel it into vibrant, dynamic communications in sales, marketing, writing, teaching, acting and driving for a living. The negative use of this will be to quarrel with siblings, neighbors and daily contacts. Don't be pushy and overbearing in your communications. This influence lasts until the autumn of 2012. You can majorly win or lose miserably.

Leo: \(Click to View\)

Usually, you have a pretty casual attitude about money. You see it as a way to express your rights. And you spend money even if you don't have it. To you money is energy to make things happen. This blast of energy from Mars (until the autumn of next year) hits you in the pocketbook. (Most curious.) It makes you much more focused on making money and boosting your earnings. This will be a positive use of this energy. However, it will also encourage you (tempt you, entice you), to blow your money big time! Be careful about diverting the powerful energy of Mars into foolishly wasting your money. (You know who you are.) Use Mars to improve your life, not drain it.

Virgo: \(Click to View\)

Lordy, Lordy! For the first time in your life, fiery Mars will make you PowerPoint on steroids! This will be like riding a rocket. If you know where you're going, you'll get there fast. If you slip off course, you're in serious trouble. (You get the picture.) Your personal energy field will cause you to work hard, party hard, express yourself energetically and get an enormous amount done. The dark side (oh yeah) is Mars can make you insufferably overbearing, bossy and in your face, ready to fight at a moment's notice. One manifestation is miserable and the other has wonderful possibilities for big accomplishments. Think about it.

Libra: \(Click to View\)

I'm looking at how this eight-months-blast of Mars affects each sign. But for Libra, it's tricky and hard to explain. That's because Mars will hide in a secret part of your chart, and by doing so, activate your unconscious impulses. It could make you become your own worst enemy by activating immature, petulant, childhood reactions when others press your buttons. (Yikes!) But hey - Mars is just energy. You can use this energy to penetrate what makes you tick. What are your self-defeating habits and patterns? What knee-jerk reactions do you invariably have that you later regret? Mars can be your own personal Sherlock Holmes. Scrutinize yourself for these answers.

Scorpio: \(Click to View\)

This unusual burst of energy due to Mars in Virgo for eight months (maybe longer in your chart) will impact your relationships with friends and, in particular, groups. In the next year, you're going to find out you're a Dynamo! People in group situations will look to you for leadership. You will direct their activities, energize the group and busily delegate. Because of you things will happen! Similarly, you'll also be gung ho about going after your dreams and wishes for the future. You'll be unusually energized about attaining your goals. The downside is you might use the energy of Mars to be too pushy with others. Be careful of this because you are a powerful sign.

Sagittarius: \(Click to View\)

You have a great opportunity to use this energy of Mars, perhaps until the winter of 2012. In fact, it's a rare opportunity! Why?

Because Mars will arouse your ambition as never before. It will energize your motivation to succeed. You will work super hard, with a specific focus in mind to achieve what you want. It's like you have a rocket strapped to your back. You'll go places! The only disadvantage is you will easily be overbearing with bosses and threaten people in authority. Naturally, this will get you nowhere and will only create obstacles for you. So use this precious energy but be smart about it. Capice?

Capricorn: \(Click to View\)

An exciting nine months ahead! (Perhaps longer.) This sustained blast of energy from Mars will make you travel more than ever before.

It will also energize you to accomplish a lot in higher education. (Great for anyone who has to finish a thesis in grad school.) It will also give you tons of energy for publishing, the media, medicine and the law. You'll be shocked at how much you will accomplish and how strong these areas will suddenly become in your life in the next year. You'll be out there flying your colours! Resist the urge to make others agree with you politically and religiously. (Because you will be tempted to do this.) Just lighten up.

Nice edition once again. It summarizes all the happenings of last week.

Blizzard - November 17, 2011, 7:13 am

Great edition once again, great readin.

Tontunator - November 17, 2011, 7:18 am

A nice edition, I enjoyed reading it.

Why do we need horoscopes, though? ?

Thats why I made my funny edition lol.

Velocity - November 17, 2011, 12:56 pm

Nice news edition Sir. It's pretty cool. I especially like the interviews ;)

Thanks for the shout out to me, Reliable!

Qwazz - November 17, 2011, 2:34 pm

What source are you using to find horoscopes?

Well obviously, which is why I asked which one.

(° ? °) - November 17, 2011, 4:23 pm

Another great news thread by Sir, thanks.

I do hope the NBA season commences, though :(

Oak - November 17, 2011, 5:01 pm

Thanks guys, we're looking in to further additions to the News.

EDIT:

@Qwazz: Google.

kamz89 - November 17, 2011, 8:14 pm

Nice Interviews lol.

Nice news and this weeks was worth reading because of the ddos attacks.

By the way, why are putting up horoscopes?

Dread Pirate Roberts - November 17, 2011, 9:40 pm

Why wasn't Eminence's recruiting mentioned?

Tyler? - November 17, 2011, 9:59 pm

I can't see the notable threads area. Is that Staff only?

You guys should interview some regular members. See there thoughts. Show them they are a huge part of the community as well.

Great job with the news section! Its gets more and more interesting!

Hawk Supply Co. - November 19, 2011, 12:56 pm

Nice job with the news this week. Everytime I come back the news gets better and better.

Wish I could watch the videos through my Ipod though but it's all good.

eCoLoGy - November 19, 2011, 9:47 pm

After reading all this thread, I realized that it's really amazing how a forum got so many talented people reunited and it's really hard to believe how people around here are so active :)

Keep it mates in HF, I'm proud to be here :)

Techie??? - November 19, 2011, 10:20 pm

Hmm. More content could be added. GJ.

Zach - November 20, 2011, 3:51 pm

Maybe coding in reverence was removed because none of the leaders know how to code anything, including html. Should be renamed to must know how to copy and paste.

Interesting news, thanks!

Glass - November 20, 2011, 10:45 pm

Nice job! Gets better every week, always looking forward to the news.

The user news was always my favorite..

Ariana Grande - November 23, 2011, 8:28 am

VeNoMZ RAtIng Omni? No, rather look at his awards, specifically the Master Donator award. Now you know why he got it. -_-

Skill: He's active. You just don't see him.

Rated R: He is also active and manages his own group. Why would he purchase a group without being active on HF?

The last time someone tried to talk down on staff, Omni fucked them all. ?

Skill and Rated R, are online all the time I believe Rated R does a lot of different work from what I have heard. Skill is active, and manages day to day issues.

Oak - November 23, 2011, 4:39 pm

I am closing this now. The next edition will be posted tomorrow for Thanksgiving.
