PLEASE link me to the seller. I'd love that. Thank you.

mrwhich - February 26, 2012, 8:27 pm

Everyone posting the same exact thing... use your brains guys... Photo says "honestseller2" on it so you would assume that's the seller's username on a site.

You then go to google and search "honestseller2 beats" and click the first link. You're there. :P

Another way is to right click the image and see that it's from a website called ioffer.com and proceed from there.
