I don't see why you'd waste time making a non-serious thread.

I don't see why you'd go around HF thinking you won't find a non-serious thread.

I'm not experienced at cracking - enough justification for me to have a go?

Trying hard generally equates to learning something.

Wow, you're pretty thick. It's called learning; nowhere did I say I was the best - it's likely I'm the worst in this thread, so stop hating.

Okay, yet you posted two time stating how to crack it and with a picture of the snippet of the check, therefore I assume you were trying to be a badass and brag about how you knew where it was and how it was done.

Keep out the LQ shit out of this section.
