Welcome back my friend. Where did your Uber go? You was suspended not demoted and you paid for it so you should get it back. Not like you broke some commandment. You broke the new rule like the second day it was made (Thread Junking). Hope all works out for you man.

Regards, HaX420

Abuse? That's a load of shit right there. It was an accident the same day it was made you junked your threads. Well shit happens I guess. Leet is better then nothing. Welcome back again and good luck with sales.

Regards, HaX420

Spetsnaz - March 2, 2012, 8:18 pm

Yeah I would say at least L33T is something and I don't want to piss off Omni. more since he did a favor on giving me my account back which I really appreciate.

And thank you bro! :) I wish you luck with your sales too!

HaX420 - March 2, 2012, 8:22 pm

Favor? You was temp banned not fully and because your account got marked for inactivity its there fault. You was suspended nothing more. Its just sad you lost your Uber for something this small and other get to walk away with there Uber for larger charges like Scams.

Regards, HaX40

Spetsnaz - March 2, 2012, 8:27 pm

True, and how most UB3R are douche and abuse their rep power. Or like you said how most of them just scam and get away clean. It was also my fault for not checking daily for the HF news, I always checked them every 5 days or so. It is pretty disappointing to lose $20, but at least I am helping HF with that donation I guess.
