Thread: Adding New Group "P0W3R"

Omniscient - December 18, 2011, 5:15 pm

I have kept this idea a secret until now but felt like now is good timing to discuss it.

I'm considering adding a "P0W3R" group to HF that will actually be a secondary group to allow members higher PM box and less restrictions like PM Flood, Search Flood, Reputations and other site restrictions.

PM Box: 10,000
Flood Times: 10 seconds
Reputation Power: 5
Reputations Per Day: 10

The new P0W3R group would have little to no requirements. It would be a one-time add-on of $10 paid only via LR and done automatically so I won't have to deal with manually upgrading anyone.

The group is meant to address the many requests I have for these few extras but something I still want to limit.

The group would have it's own userbar but members would not be able to set it as their display group.

I'd probably implement in the next 2-3 weeks. A few of the features I will need to write a plugin for. Also we still have to upgrade to MyBB 1.6.5 first.

So that's my idea. Any thoughts on this?

DAV3 - December 18, 2011, 5:15 pm

This looks like a great idea, though are you considering this the likes of Ub3r or something supplementary to Ub3r?

Cody8295 - December 18, 2011, 5:16 pm

Sound great, I'll buy the upgrade once it comes out!

?arty - December 18, 2011, 5:16 pm

I thought there is vulns in mybb 1.6.4 and your still not on 1.6.5? And i would LOVE THIS. Id buy it right now

0_0 - December 18, 2011, 5:17 pm

I would purchase this, I think you should do it

Michael Westen - December 18, 2011, 5:17 pm

I really wish you would accept PayPal. Doing a currency exchange is going to be interesting I suppose.

Grand Pootis - December 18, 2011, 5:17 pm

So you could only upgrade from ub3r to this? I think you should accept paypal for it, as well. And would you have to approve a member before joining?

bckc - December 18, 2011, 5:17 pm

This should only be available to Ub3r members though right?

~Bckc

Soulmate - December 18, 2011, 5:17 pm

It would be nice. Would there be an official color that your username will be? And will other members know that you are part of the group?

H??????a X™ - December 18, 2011, 5:18 pm

Hmm, not too bad. I like the new things you will get with it, I'd certainly get it. However, don't change the reputation. You know most people paid 18 dollars, now 30 dollars to give +3 reputation. Also, reputation is already a problem, giving people a bigger amount, same as staff would just influence that more.

(Dec 18, 2011 06:17 PM)Michael Westen Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) I really wish you would accept PayPal. Doing a currency exchange is going to be interesting I suppose.
I think he wants more people to use LR, rather than PP.

BreastMilk - December 18, 2011, 5:18 pm

This is a great idea. I will definitely be one of the first people to buy it.

Xerotic - December 18, 2011, 5:18 pm

If their reputation power is 5, then I think Staff's should be raised. My two cents.

Grand Pootis - December 18, 2011, 5:19 pm

You should make it only available to ub3rs, as it wouldn't be fair to allow somebody who has paid $10 total to rep that much, whereas ub3rs already paid $30+

Musky - December 18, 2011, 5:19 pm

I think this will be a cool idea. thanks umni.

Suhinder - December 18, 2011, 5:19 pm

This would be sick. I thought 2,500 would be a ton but I have to clear still.

I'd definitely buy it.

Charlie Kelly - December 18, 2011, 5:19 pm

I like the idea. I was thinking of something along the lines of this the other day actually, and wondering why there wasn't an extra.

Looking forward to it.

kamz89 - December 18, 2011, 5:20 pm

I love this. I would like to buy it as soon as it releases.

Can't you add paypal payment methods too?

Excalibur - December 18, 2011, 5:22 pm sounds great, and making it LR only means it would be harder to scam.

wouldnt it just be easier to increase some of the benefits of the upgraded ranks though?

T3h Hack3r - December 18, 2011, 5:22 pm

Sounds sweet, does this mean the power of site staff and administrators reputation will be increased, or will it remain the same?

Morchid - December 18, 2011, 5:22 pm

I agree with everything but the idea of allowing members to 5+ other members. Should keep that as a mentor/staff thing. :)

Rippin™ - December 18, 2011, 5:23 pm

So will it be

L33T -> UB3R -> POW3R?

I agree with this. PayPal is much easier for me, and I would really like to avoid a currency exchange. I think that I'd do Liberty Reserve if I HAD too but I would really really prefer PayPal.

SwiftX - December 18, 2011, 5:23 pm

I kinda like but, I think it should have some sort of requirements.

Because if a random user just buys it for only 10 LR, then they have 5 rep power and they're gonna feel somewhat powerful.

Selena - December 18, 2011, 5:23 pm

U should add paypal. And make it so u have to already be ub3r to upgrade to pow3r

Mobster. - December 18, 2011, 5:24 pm

So much love in this thread, Good Idea !

OnTheFly - December 18, 2011, 5:24 pm

Awesome idea, after christmas I will be sure to buy this. First I will need to figure out LR though haha.

Yes, I agree.

It should be l33t ---> ub3r ---> pow3r but, ub3rs don't need any requirements, they can just buy it.

Sasori - December 18, 2011, 5:24 pm

I really love this Idea and can't wait for it to be implemented.

Great work Omniscient.

Arcturus Mengsk - December 18, 2011, 5:24 pm

I am totally game, but I think it should be named something different. :P

Raidan - December 18, 2011, 5:25 pm

I think the group/upgrade should have it's own subforum. Make it a little more special. Lol
Hopefully no one wants to call me a dumbass for my suggestion. ._.

Liberty Reserve would be a lot safer to use instead of Paypal.

Douchebag # 145 - December 18, 2011, 5:25 pm

I do not think it is a good decision to make it automatic. I think you should make it like ub3r, where it is somewhat difficult to upgrade but don't lower your standards for accepting 1337>ub3r.

Viral Dragon - December 18, 2011, 5:26 pm

Omni,

Not too bad in my opinion. However, some things to note.
Back when ub3r was still new(sih), it was only like $18. If people got it then, that's fine. Now people pay like $30 for it. o_o. Is POW3R is only $10...and anyone can buy it and they get more crap than ub3r..

See where this might cause a problem? I think it should only be available to the Ub3rs.

-Viral.

Tibit - December 18, 2011, 5:26 pm

Sounds good, but the reputation part is not needed. It costs $25 - 30 to get +3 rep power, making it +5 for $10 would be contradictory. However, it would be better if only Ub3rs could upgrade to POW3R, that would make it all work out better, make it go L33t -> Ub3r -> POW3R.

Greyersting - December 18, 2011, 5:26 pm

This sounds great but is this going to end up taking a LONG time like to rep reset?

I haven't read the entire thread, but I think you must firstly have HF Ub3r to be able to upgrade.

Widow's Peak - December 18, 2011, 5:27 pm

If you don't add any other features, I don't think anyone (including me) will buy it.

MaorS - December 18, 2011, 5:27 pm

Surprised to see such a low price to upgrade to that and would have "little to no requirement".

fiddy '% - December 18, 2011, 5:27 pm

If I'm honest this is a bad idea. We don't need more permissions. - If you to raise some more funds do a "Every little Helps" award where users have to donate $10 to get it.

And if you're worried about manually adding the award well, this site is your job and jobs are time consuming and hard.

Rowdy - December 18, 2011, 5:28 pm

Isn't rep going to be taken out anyway?

Ninjury - December 18, 2011, 5:33 pm

Since everyone is giving their two cents, then I shall give mine.

As for raising the rep: I don't believe it will be abused anymore than regular rep is.

If someone get's rep fucked, could put in a punishment where they can't give negative reps for a set amount of time after the rep fuck.

I do however believe the user-bar should be allowed to be displayed as our main group, and change the color of our name.

Like give us a shiny silver colored name.

If it doesn't change the user-bar/name. It might just be me; but I wouldn't get it.

This is a major sticking point for this.

If members have the ability to +5, they will be more likely to abuse their power.

As such, only Staff and Mentors should have the +5 ability.

Ohya - December 18, 2011, 5:40 pm

Looks like a good idea, but I do not support the fact that there are no requirements aside from a $10 LR payment.

Now it will simply be another pay-to-upgrade group that will definitely be abused and complained about by many, just like uber.

Perhaps you should raise the standards in order for people to be able to upgrade.

People have complained about getting a group with more 'power' (see what I did there?), but it had to be a group that you couldn't buy or whatever.

That's when the Mentors came, which is great. This new group should have less power than the mentors do, but should go by the same standards.

If you are going to make it available as an upgrade, then it needs some requirements.

Just my two cents. I don't want people complaining about spoiled kids with too much money on their hands who go around and -5 everyone just to show off their new upgrade.

I assume a lot of members would be willing to offer service for POW3R upgrades. I'll be sure to build in a gift option.

Quote:So you could only upgrade from ub3r to this?

No. It's a secondary group. Unlike ub3r which is a primary group. I have no intention of adding another group I need to do approvals for.

Quote:This should only be available to Ub3r members though right?

It will be an option for any user.

Quote:Would there be an official color that your username will be? And will other members know that you are part of the group?

I stated you can't set it as display group. And like other groups members are in you can see the userbar in their profile page.

Quote:You know most people paid 18 dollars, now 30 dollars to give +3 reputation.

I'm still considering that option and how best to implement. It might not work. I just know I'd like to maximize the use of group.

Quote:You should make it only available to ub3rs, as it wouldn't be fair to allow somebody who has paid $10 total to rep that much, whereas ub3rs already paid $30+

Ub3r has a lot of features built into the group. Ability to see a lot of pages and functions strictly for them. The POW3R group wouldn't even be close.

I get a lot of requests for people to have more PM space and less Flood time. This is a way for me to do it reasonably easy.

Don't get the idea this is a real group like ub3r/l33t. It's more of an addon secondary group to boost an account.

If I do the reputation thing you will still need to be ub3r to give negative reps. You will still need l33t to give reps at all. Just the power would be increased. At least that's the concept.

Quote:If you don't add any other features, I don't think anyone (including me) will buy it.

Wrong. Just read this thread. Lots of people want bigger PM space or are annoyed by flood times. I honestly get the request constantly. I've been offered $500 even for individual account alterations.

Quote:Its logic, why would people upgrade to ub3r if they could instantly be POW3r lol?

You misunderstand. You won't get any of the ub3r access like in Marketplace or the ability to give negative reps just by being a POW3R member. It's by no means an ub3r replacement group. Right now you can't be both l33t and ub3r. They are clearly one group then another with more abilities. The POW3r group you can be in the l33t/ub3r as well.

POW3R is a boosted group for existing members. Certainly not a replacement for l33t/ub3r. Not at all.

A few comments on this, sorry if they've already been asked but I don't really want to go through 10 pages to find out

Not sure how I feel about people paying just $10 to get these perks. With the upcoming rep reset I feel that this may be a threat to the value of a reputation. Or at least for what you're aiming to accomplish with the rep reset.

I definitely think staff should get a rep increase, too. As a few other people have stated as well.

IMO, you can get more money out of this and it's honestly not unfair to ask for more, as ub3r is a group well worth the money, and POW3R sounds like something I would personally be willing to pay up to $20-30 for.

If anything, I think you can reasonably ask for more money.

Edit; we posted at the same time, Omniscient. A few of my questions might be answered in your huge wall of quotes

Velocity - December 18, 2011, 5:50 pm

Genius idea Omni but maybe you should put a FEW requirements... people will abuse it if you don't limit it.

Suhinder - December 18, 2011, 5:51 pm

If normal members can get it that defeats the purpose of getting L33T and UB3R (many people get them just FOR rep).

You'd be losing money, which I don't understand. There would be many members buying POW3R and not buying L33T or UB3R.

Baker - December 18, 2011, 5:53 pm

I honestly think this is a problem waiting to happen .

One good thing about it is the Pm limit being raised .

The first problem arises when someone wants to purchase it and they only have paypal .

They will have to find someone to exchange with . That opens up a new way for scammers to scam

It is easier to scam also . Cause 9 times out of 10 the Person who wants to exchange Paypal goes first .

Next problem i see is with the Reputation . With greater power comes greater responsibility .

The reason why +5 and -5 were only given out to staff was because Omni knew it would have less chance of being abused .

If it given out to any uber who pays the $10 it will be abused . All it takes is some rep hungry members to get greedy .

Also If this is going to be implemented it should only be Ubers who are allowed to purchase .

If anyone could buy it , there will be trouble . You already had to prove yourself to get Uber and think it should go Normal , Leet , Uber , Power .

My Opinion .

I like the idea, but I don't like the fact that it will have little to no requirements. It makes it so just about anybody would be able to join.

No incentive really, besides the extra privileges. I understand it's a money move, but I have a feeling it will cause a lot more controversy with it having no requirements.

Edit: Read your second post, and I understand now.

I just don't think it would be right to have it like

L33t>Power = +5

Ub3r>Power = +5/-5

I do like the concept very much though.

I just think it should be more like this for l33t.

L33t>Power = +2, -1.

Still gives the user incentive to upgrade to ub3r.

Will we still keep out L33T or Ub3r user bars as well?

I'd like to know the requirements you would be implementing. I think its a good idea but I'm not sure if having people pay 10$ to neg rep 5 with little requirements would be a good idea since the market place does not have a vouch system yet. Just my thoughts on the idea :)

If you are a normal member and you're in this POW3R group also, you will have the extra PM space and flood time. You can't give out reputation since you are a normal member. Will have same restrictions on other things as a normal member does.

(Dec 18, 2011 06:15 PM)Omniscient Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) I have kept this idea a secret until now but felt like now is good timing to discuss it.

I'm considering adding a "P0W3R" group to HF that will actually be a secondary group to allow members higher PM box and less restrictions like PM Flood, Search Flood, Reputations and other site restrictions.

PM Box: 10,000
Flood Times: 10 seconds
Reputation Power: 5
Reputations Per Day: 10

The new P0W3R group would have little to no requirements. It would be a one-time add-on of $10 paid only via LR and done automatically so I won't have to deal with manually upgrading anyone.

The group is meant to address the many requests I have for these few extras but something I still want to limit.

The group would have it's own userbar but members would not be able to set it as their display group.

I'd probably implement in the next 2-3 weeks. A few of the features I will need to write a plugin for. Also we still have to upgrade to MyBB 1.6.5 first.

So that's my idea. Any thoughts on this?! I'd buy the FUCK out of this group omni.

Or did you see " new group" and went "OH! MU5T POST QUIK NAO!"

It's not a "group", it's an add-on that anyone can get.

No, there is probably no award as yet, since Omni didn't say anything about there being one.

Ub3r = +3/-3

Ub3r + Power = +5/-5

1337 = +1/0

1337 + Power = +5/0

Regular = Nothing

Regular + Power = Nothing

All above get PM space.

Oh thank god, for a second I thought regulars could -5 me now...

@-na.Sasori

L33T + Pow3r should be +3/-1 IMO. Or just +3/0.

I'm sure the whole point of making it LR/AP would be so that omni doesn't get charge backed' so often, and also to make it scarce as not all ub3rs have LR/AP L33Ts shouldn't be able to give +5 while UB3Rs give +3.

A +5 from a L33T w/ POW3R will lead to alot of multi accounts, as they do not need to upgrade to UB3R to give more rep for their multi-accounts.

They would still need to pay the original 20$ + 10$ for (Leet and power) which would let them give Rep (Leet) and then the +5 (Power) when if they were smart, theyd go straight from Normal User to Ub3r + power = 40$

I said, most of guys buy ub3r to get more rep power. All you get after buying ub3r is, a VIP section full of garbage, a userbar, a forwarded e-mail, reputation power, more PM space, Viewing warning etc. In all those features, I would choose reputation power, userbar and PM space. Reputation to cost of the group ratio is fucked up.

5 reputation power, and no requirements?

I see bad news on that one, you may want to reconsider the price at least...

Omniscient - December 19, 2011, 1:26 am

Quote:ok this cleared it up a lot, i think that you should make it so that if a leet gets power then they can +2 and if a uber gets it then they can +/- 4, The +/- 5 seems a little high

That's not a bad suggestion. What I want this new group to do is just boost an account.

Quote:I'm looking forward to the no flood time, it's going to be great! I wish someone would elaborate about the reputation power. Does that mean anyone who pays $10 could +5/-5? I'm sure that's not it, as Ubers pay more than that and only get +3/-3. Sorry if I missed something.

I'm basically still thinking through the rep implementation for the group. Might be best to use the suggestion where a +/- 2 for rep power to the suitable group (l33t/ub3r).

Again..if you're regular+p0w3r you can't rep. It's not regular->l33t->ub3r->p0w3r either. It's l33t+p0w3r as an example. You'd be "P0W3R L33t" or "P0W3R Ub3r". I think that's where people don't get this and believe only ub3r should have this. But that sort of defeats my intent. I'm denying more and more people to ub3r. A lot of people will just never get in. In those cases these people want more PM space or other benefits on their accounts.

And really I will not do this with PP. I just won't. The hassles of using LR are worth it. Zero reversals which means zero risk.

Quote:I'm sure some of the currency exchangers will open up a shop. I'll personally transfer like $150 in PayPal to LR so I can upgrade people.

I assume it's not against the rules to sell upgrades? Like if I wanted to sell a POW3R upgrade for $12 PayPal?

HF specifically doesn't have rules against exchanges but realize that some providers have TOS/AUP's that don't allow it. That activity is at your risk. As always. IMHO people doing business here would be better off having at least some LR funds for secure transactions. Any new features I'm hoping to build with LR as a base currency.

Quote:Omni, is this for sure going to go through? I'd rather exchange my PP > LR now instead of when it comes out. If it doesn't come out, I don't want to have nothing to do w/ my LR.

Yes for sure. It's been on my idea list for a few months. Decided to bust out the news for it today.

Quote:Tbh what I feel now is it wont hamper anything as members are saying . It would just increase your PM limit and the floodtime thing which should be available to everyone irrespective of levels though I would say not to change the REP Giving thing

Possibly. Still reviewing member input. Reps might come off the feature list. Depends on if I can think of another way to give the group some oomf.

Quote:Will we still keep out L33T or Ub3r user bars as well?

I'll say it again. You can't set your display group as P0W3R. It will not be a primary group.

This is going to be an option for SOME users that want SOME extra power. It will not replace l33t/ub3r at all. Not sure how many times I have to say that. This is not a third tier group. It's an add-on to existing ones. That's the concept.

Agreed, the reputation system is for the most part abused.

Most of the reputations are directed towards one another as part of a group or just pure hatred for the user for whatever reason that may be discriminatory, I have been told numerous times by elders to not report or create situations for myself as I would get repfucked by ub3rs. Why would I need to be scared of this if the reputation system was used properly.

The Dark Hacker - December 19, 2011, 1:36 am

I like the idea of P0w3r group, Just bit more serious about rep increase. I think Omni you should make a poll about rep. And this should be available to ub3rs Only. It's just my personal thought btw, Thanks for update. I was waiting for that since long time.

Flipybitz™ - December 19, 2011, 1:37 am

Now that I think about prices, if you're going for the +2/+4 idea, definitely don't make it over $15 because that would be about equivilant to that of an upgrade, and as you said this isn't an upgrade, just an add-on.

But if you are going to stick with the original plans, $15 sounds pretty good, but for the other, I would say $10 sounds suitable.

What do you think?

Mike' - December 19, 2011, 1:38 am

Oh, and Omni; power l33t would be a great idea, although 5 rep power is a bit too high; it should be +1 for l33t so -/+ 2 for power l33t and ub3rs would get +2 for -/+ 5

ALSO: This should be reminded, and I think if you're getting a P0w3r upgrade, it should be a slightly better upgrade than an Ub3r P0w3r upgrade, like maybe split the benefits by 1/5 for L33t, and make it regular for Ub3rs.

I am just concern only for rep power. Omni needs to think about that increase in rep.

grapeFRUIT - December 19, 2011, 1:45 am

Yeah, this will totally rock. Also, I have a few ideas you could implement:

If you're in the group, you get +/- 2 rep added for Ub3rs, and +/- 1 for L33TS. So if you're Ub3r+P0W3R you'd have the ability to +5/-5 people, and if you're L33T+P0W3R you have the ability to +2/-2. That's where being an Ub3r should mean more then being a L33T.

Having it's own special forum. Yes, having it's own special forum just for testing where members of the group POW3R have the ability to junk/close threads. Basically, just like the former 'Test' forum that was deleted, but you could call it POW3R Tester or something like that. And also, add an automatically junk feature that applies to threads who have been older then 1 month but had no replies or edits from the OP. Oh and also, make it so that the OP can only post in his thread.

Is this group going to have an user-bar shown in the additional usergroups on our profile? If not, how about adding an award specially for people that are in this group? So, members can differ regular Ub3rs from POW3R Ub3rs and L33TS from POW3R LEETS.

Hope at least one of my suggestion gets accepted.

CueBasE - December 19, 2011, 1:46 am

More power = More responsibility. That being said, I think there should be more rules. Like if a user exceeds a 50% warning level, his or her POW3R membership should be suspended for "X" amount of time. Something like that.

I am just concern only for rep power. Omni needs to think about that increase in rep. Well if you get into detail with the amount of rep that you can give. All this would do is take away a slight amount of power from lower ranks, but in return it would raise the average amount of rep. tl;dr - It's just saying like the average rep for a person right now is 100, but the normal for the future would be 150. For new comers it would be average, but for us it would be higher than normal, just making reputation a but more unstable than it is now, it just takes time to get used to. It's hard to explain easily.

EDIT: It's like inflation with currency, just makes the value of things go up, but technically they are the same price.

What it does is add onto your account. It does not CHANGE your abilities.

if you had the ability to give + rep . it will be increased.

If you had the ability to give - rep . it will be increased.

if you had the ability to hold PM's. it will be increased.

ect.

Its not a new group like ub3r or l33t or normal.

its a attachment to the groups

Here's a "map" of what I understand.

Normal-p0w3r's (PM Box: 10,000 l337-P0w3r's (PM Box: 10,000

ub3r-p0w3r's (PM Box: 10,000

I'm all for everything else, but I personally don't support the idea of additional rep permissions being granted given this new group would NOT be a Tier 3 group. I don't think it would be in HF's best interest to allow non-manual approved accounts such rep privileges (especially for such a low price), as I expect they may eventually become subject to daily exploitation on a large scale (effectively, I'm talking about members with a lot of money buying L33T and POW3R to promote indirect rep abuse). I know it might seem unlikely and I know this can also be countered with enough staff management, but then you need to consider the implementation of new rules that not everyone will immediately be aware of, official procedures to deal with rogue accounts, allocation of staff members with the responsibility of making decisions that may affect potential future sales (how do they deal with someone exploiting rep that's already donated a potentially reversible $500+), etc.

However unlikely the circumstances I've described, I think the additional rep privileges will over-time only devalue the benefits of primary user groups and encourage negative repercussions that realistically aren't worth the risk of a $10 profit each. Ofcourse, if some members have the money to do that, good on Omni - but probably not so good on our community, (where in my opinion) reputation has always been something difficult to indirectly exploit without being caught.

I would buy this just because I always need to keep emptying some old PMs due to reaching the limit of 2,500 PMs. Also it's very cheap and good add-on. Good idea man!

Normal members can also be a POW3R, but they dont have Ub3r features. like -reps and etc.

There wont be any problem making this to normal members I guess. Since they wont have any features of ub3r.

It would be a great addition for Normal Members who wants larger PM space and Remove Search Flood , Post Flood etc. I think P0W3Rs should also be allowed to use Images in their Signatures.

Why The Payment Option Is Only Liberty Reserve?

There Should Be Paypal

~xXx~ - December 19, 2011, 4:51 am

Reputation ranking thing is unfair in all this, and rest accepting lr is a nice idea as its headache free buy out. As pp all time sucks with chargebacks etc... and rest please upgrade your mybb immediately as 1.6.4 has some vulnerabilities. And remove this from thread as well so no one could know what version we reply on.

And really oncevagain its all an awesome idea just don't do rep increased that much... +1 / -1 is satisfactory for 10$ as after paying 30$ + we get +3 / -3 and that l33t can't even -1 anyone... i hope you will be thinking on this before implementing your final decision.

Good Luck. :)

This is a great idea however i have a question, how will other users know who's Pow3r and who's not? as you said this group will have no user bar so what will set this add-on apart from users who don't have it besides being able to +5 and having extra mail space.

It would be cool if Pow3r upgraded users would have a different color in there name, like instead of l33ts being gold once they're Pow3r l33t there name is upgraded to a neon yellow :D and with Ub3rs there name color would be a bright purple colour that way people will know who's upgraded and whos not.

I think this should be allowed only to Ub3rs from a greed standpoint. Why would someone pay $30 for +3 when the can just pay $10 for +5. This should be the next paid upgrade for members.

Members = No Rep

$18 L33T = +1 or +0

$15(+L33T) or $30 UB3R = +3 +2 +1 +0 -1 -2 -3

$10LR POW3R = +5 +3 +2 +1 +0 -1 -2 -3 -5

That way there is some form of hierarchy among the members. Maybe even the price up to $20 for the extra perks even.

Omni stated that the POW3R group would be an alternative for the ones that are denied from being Ub3r. The reputation will probably not be the same for everyone with 'power'.

I think that it's a good idea. I don't need any more features though, but that's just a personal preference. I'm sure many will be happy with this.

?nvy - December 19, 2011, 8:20 am

Maybe he should have UB3R be more lenient and have POW3R be hell a lot more strict because of the additional perks.

Ethereal - December 19, 2011, 8:37 am

I suggest that the Reputation remain below Staff's; perhaps consider reducing it to 4/Day, or leaving it unchanged.

Exiled™ - December 19, 2011, 9:01 am

It should be for "trusted" Ub3rs only, approved by you Omni. Otherwise it will be "more power to abusers" .

It is obvious that you need more money to run hackforums but 10$ is just a small amount. (Price min. 30 - 50 $) ?

Mr.Lazy - December 19, 2011, 9:06 am there must be 2 requirements for this type of group

1. you must be ub3r
2. you must be approved by omni

Edit:

omniscient said that

I'm basically still thinking through the rep implementation for the group. Might be best to use the suggestion where a +/- 2 for rep power to the suitable group (l33t/ub3r).

Again..if you're regular+p0w3r you can't rep. It's not regular->l33t->ub3r->p0w3r either. It's l33t+p0w3r as an example. You'd be "P0W3R L33t" or "P0W3R Ub3r". I think that's where people don't get this and believe only ub3r should have this. But that sort of defeats my intent. I'm denying more and more people to ub3r. A lot of people will just never get in. In those cases these people want more PM space or other benefits on their accounts.

And really I will not do this with PP. I just won't. The hassles of using LR are worth it. Zero reversals which means zero risk.

?_*?s??døw ??s????*.,? - December 19, 2011, 9:11 am

You already need to get approved to become an ub3r, and another approval for P0w3r? That'll keep Omni busy for a heck lot of time, would be better to upgrade it simply from L33t -> Ub3r or P0w3r (not because I'm l33t, just an opinion)...that way the approval can be done.

Anne - December 19, 2011, 9:12 am

I don't know if you read this, since there has been a lot of replies on this, but I would suggest you to consider this heavily before doing it.

What catches my eye is the automatic upgrade feature. Great idea but really hard to pull off. People might find a way to bypass the payment, and get the upgrade without paying a cent. I suppose you have already thought of this, and hopefully you have some good people working on this, who can test if it's bypassable.

HF specifically doesn't have rules against exchanges but realize that some providers have TOS/AUP's that don't allow it. That activity is at your risk. As always. IMHO people doing business here would be better off having at least some LR funds for secure transactions. Any new features I'm hoping to build with LR as a base currency.

Yes for sure. It's been on my idea list for a few months. Decided to bust out the news for it today.

Possibly. Still reviewing member input. Reps might come off the feature list. Depends on if I can think of another way to give the group some oomf.

I'll say it again. You can't set your display group as P0W3R. It will not be a primary group.

This is going to be an option for SOME users that want SOME extra power. It will not replace l33t/ub3r at all. Not sure how many times I have to say that. This is not a third tier group. It's an add-on to existing ones. That's the concept.

I really think that the UB3R's should get the +5 and the L33T get a +2 or 3. I really like the idea of rep being bundled into P0W3R.
