[img]<http://i.minus.com/jDq8OI06Hfbzh.png>[/img] Youtube Award

The almighty Omniscient was feeling rather generous this Christmas and decided to give HackForums a present by giving out a few youtube awards. Members who wanted to obtain the award were asked to make a video wishing everyone around them a merry Christmas. A few deserving members did get it however Omniscient is no longer giving out the award.

New groups

There has been talk of two new groups on HF, Brotherhood and Propitious. Neither of these groups has been entirely paid off, so it is still unconfirmed whether or not they will become official. Propitious however, is planned to be open to recruitment on January 10th.

[img]<http://goo.gl/IWWKU>[/img] Stay Plural - has been repfucked for giving positive reputation to a ban evader.

h3x3n - received a repfuck for PM'ing Omniscient a suggestion, this is his 2nd repfuck in 2 weeks.

AdonisG - he has taken a vacation ban and will be returning just before new years day.

JustinH - received a ban for Ub3r Junk Abuse.

Rainbow Dash - Rainbow has taken a ban for vacation.

the professional hacker - has been banned for Threatening and Flaming members.

The Holy - has been repfucked for unknown reasons, but many users believe that his Xbox 360 Kinect service is a scam. He was in the dead group, but has been moved to the banned account group.

[img]<http://goo.gl/YEmyS>[/img] General Thread(s)

Christmas Thread - Merry Christmas HF - Omniscient - Merry Christmas everyone! Omniscient made a thread saying "Merry Christmas" to all of Hack Forums. This was also one of the only ways to get the Youtube award, you had to make a video response.

Heartwarming Thread - [Member from here destroys guys Xmas \[Update day 3 27th December\]](#) - Black Shadow - Black Shadow is trying to help a member reclaim his account from a hacker, he is standing up for someone else and doing all he can for them.

Interesting Thread - Types Of HF Members - Mr. Sky - Mr. Sky has decided to make a thread that kind of explains each of the types of members, if you're interested in a laugh, you should check it out.

Scam Thread - Scammer protection - bugga - The Holy was in the dead account group but has now been moved in to the banned account group. This is bugga's thread about his scamming.

[img]<http://goo.gl/C6j11>[/img] Interview - Reliable's Mate (Click to View)

Kottonmouth: Hello Reliable's Mate! I'm glad you could take the time to have this interview with me.
Reliable's Mate: Glad to be here.

Kottonmouth: Reliable's Mate; Is there anyone you'd like to make a shoutout to before we begin?

Reliable's Mate: I would like to shout out to Biz, Reliable, Publicity, Grin, Genuine, Eminent, Ignite, Jimmy, Kottonmouth., and anyone else who I talk to on a daily basis. I would also like to shout out to everyone in reverence, red lions, techsperts, Eminence, marketers, and the black Knights.

Kottonmouth: So, to start off.. I believe your permanent name is Enterprise.. So, let's talk about that; How did you come up with that name?

Reliable's Mate: Well the name enterprise was suggested from a friend of mine who said that when he was l33t he would like to change his name to Enterprise so i asked him if I could keep that name and he was fine with it. Also i am interested in marketing so it fit really well.

Kottonmouth: How did you find Hack Forums, and why did you decide to stay?

Reliable's Mate: I came here on an adventure to learn more about minecraft and then i decided to leave that one section of the forum and realized what hackforums was really about.

Kottonmouth: What do you have to say about the new usergroup "P0W3R" being added?

Reliable's Mate: I feel that Omniscient is doing a great thing. He is trying to convince members to use LR which I think is great. The perks are also great being able to +5 or -5 will really make a difference.

Kottonmouth: In the future, do you see good or bad changes happening to Hack Forums? Based on what's being changed now, happening, etc?

Reliable's Mate: I see many things. We have a great amount of dedicated members that will help hackforums through any rough patch so I think that hackforums and all of its members should be optimistic.

Kottonmouth: What's your full opinion on all the groups of Hack Forums? What groups would you remove, and / or change?

Reliable's Mate: Honestly I think that groups were meant for people to help out other members. Some have kept continued traditions on but some are just there because they would like to be there. I am not against any group.

Kottonmouth: You're in 6 of the 14 official Hack Forums groups. How did you pick up the determination to get into so many? Do you manage to sustain your job in each one every day?

Reliable's Mate: Honestly, at times yes it is hard but I feel as though I contribute to each group equally. Honestly, when Hysteria upgraded me to ub3r as a sign of kindness I immediately knew I had to join the Red Lions in the Red Lions I really see the family feeling so I ended up trying to get into each group so I could help everyone out and that we would help each other no matter what.

Kottonmouth: Alright, well I think that raps up this interview. Is there anything you'd like to say to rap it up?

Reliable's Mate: Thank you for interviewing me. Merry Christmas and Happy Hannnukah from Enterprise.

Interview - Poppins (Click to View)

1. Would you like to give any shoutouts?

My boy both and jim francis.

2. Why did you join Hack Forums?

Met a friend of the family on holiday who taught me how to do SQL injections and drive-by attacks on servers so I came home and googled 'underground hacking forum' lololol.

3. Where'd you get your username?

A chick called me it because I held her umbrella for her.

4. Why were you banned and are you glad to be back?

I've been banned quite a bit. Last time was for not posting in the marketplace. Yeah I'm glad to be back because it was a stupid ban.

5. Where'd you get the idea for your signature?

Saw that little kid and instantly thought of it.

6. What's your favorite section on Hack Forums and why?

Would've been the lounge but that's gone to shit so probably the SRPP section because it makes me think.

7. Do you have any opinions on the loss of the SE section and the creation of the DREDD section?

I used to like the SE section. Never noticed there was a DREDD section haha.

8. Where do you see yourself in 5 years, in relation to HF?

With -2000 rep and a black name

9. What do you like to do when you aren't on Hack Forums?

I just go out and live life I suppose. Either that or design/coding.

10. Do you have any words for the members of HF?

Check yourself before you wreck yourself, bricks to the face are bad for your health.

One of the worlds most infamous leaders has died and leaving Korea unattended to. Kim Jong Il's death on Saturday has sparked a 13-day mourning period in North Korea as thousands converged on Pyongyang to pay their respects to their "Dear Leader." When Mr. Il was found dead, an autopsy was performed. They found that he died from over exhaustion. For South Koreans, Kim Jong Il's sudden death drove home an unsettling disparity between them and their neighbors, a gap that could spark turmoil, if an unstable North Korea were to collapse. At this point, some in Seoul say, North and South Korea hold nothing in common but a language.

After months of hard work Pod2G (@pod2g) has finally released--with the help if the iPhone Dev Team and Chronic Dev Team--an untethered jailbreak for all devices running A4 processors and below (iPod touch 3G,4G iPhone 3gS, 4, and iPad 1) running iOS 5.0.1. The A5 devices (iPhone 4S and iPad 2) are still being exploited. The main problem with them at this current time is that they need to find a way to inject the untethered exploit. More when Pod2G updates.

Smartphone Sales

This holiday season was a huge hit for cellphone companies. According to "Computerworld.com, the activation of Android and iOS products jumped by 142% on Christmas Day. This is a huge increase since from Dec 1st-20th, the sales were only 1.6 million and on 25th, the activation jumped to 6.8 MILLION. The two platforms are at the other's throat to dominate the charts on which product consumers like better.

[img]http://i.minus.com/jeLhgJAzL8zy6.png[/img] This is basically my own little corner to type up my thoughts and some standpoints on different topics. People nowadays are so rude, it's a well known opinion. Life is going by so fast, there is no time for leisure and relaxation until you're retired and tucked away in a small corner of society. I think that the need for speed is the main reason as to why people just don't care for each other. For example, when you're driving to work--or even the grocery store--people will cut you off and drive right in front of you. That's just one small instance, there are thousands of others in thousands of different scenarios. In my opinion, the entire population is becoming more self-centered. It's a shame that life has come to this, and it bears witness to the ideas that humanity is coming to a fall. No, I'm not saying that we will cease to exist. I'm saying that humanity in the sense of right and wrong, good and evil--the basis of humanity--is coming to a close. That's just a tidbit of something I'd like to say, if you feel like commenting, do so. Please don't turn it in to a hateful discussion, it's just an opinion. None of the above is proven or a fact.

The exploit was an USERLAND exploit. So injection? I don't believe so.

Injection is used for bootrom exploits.

Also, iPhone Dev Team did almost nothing./

It was pod2g to work on it/And Chronic to integrate it into a tool [patched and updated] for public release.

Now...

Corona you may want to add is in the BigBoss repository. And since you are giving out iDevice news, you might throw in the big news besides the jailbreak.

A LEGAL port of SIRI has been released. Attainable on iHacksrepo, and/or BigBoss's repo. The installer is called Spire. IT takes a while to download.

redsn0w 0.9.10b1 [About this]

Do not use it.

Use b2.

b2 fixes the Apple Infinite Boot Logo bug. So you might one to emphasize on this so people don't screw up their iDevices.

Well, majority of all who have posted on this thread. It's not a big jump as I was speaking in this point of time. I have yet to see the rest of the feedback. Though, some think it's "immature" or "childish", but the funny thing is... There are comics in the New York Times and many more popular newspapers.

Yeah but most of those comics aren't really that funny, they're political cartoons or comics made by aspiring artists, and usually contain a professional tone to their humor.

Well, think about it. Are we gonna post comics related to something not related to hacking or Hack Forums itself? New York Times does political cartoons, and other things like that because well, for one they want to really professional considering they are one of the most read newspapers. They also sometimes relate it to their MAIN subject of that newspaper. So, our comics are kinda Hack Forums relevant, and they also have a little twist.

Yeah. Kinda have to look at the big picture to understand what I was saying. Not even sure if I made 100% clear sense. Also, comics don't have to be these ultra leet drawing skills. Making them simple, makes them original. Thug tip from me to you.

Problem is.. Around Hack Forums it'd be hard to find someone actually dedicated to it. If we had a good artist for say, 5-10 editions and he decides to just drop us. In between the 5+ editions, everyone loved his/her comics. We'd have to find someone different, but who could play that role?

Think of it like Batman. No one can play The Joker like Heath Ledger did.

I've already gotten 2 PM's regarding the position on comic artist without even advertising it, I've never mentioned my interest in having an artist until that last post, the HF news has MUCH more support and popularity than the HF Tribune has, and if I can get 2 pms without asking publicly, I'm sure you could get a dedicated artist.

Injection is used for bootrom exploits.

Also, iPhone Dev Team did almost nothing./

It was pod2g to work on it/And Chronic to integrate it into a tool [patched and updated] for public release.

Now...

Corona you may want to add is in the BigBoss repository. And since you are giving out iDevice news, you might throw in the big news besides the jailbreak.

A LEGAL port of SIRI has been released. Attainable on iHacksrepo, and/or BigBoss's repo. The installer is called Spire. IT takes a while to download.

redsn0w 0.9.10b1 [About this]

Do not use it.

Use b2.

b2 fixes the Apple Infinite Boot Logo bug. So you might one to emphasize on this so people don't screw up their iDevices.

If you read the blog, they cant inject the untethered because Limera1n exploit used to do that :P.

The legal port of Siri is anything but big now, they cant prove its all legal because its still grabbing files that Apple doesnt allow. When I typed this it was days before the b2 or Corona got updated.

Also if you read carefully I said that pod2G released the untethered with THE HELP, the help of the iPhone Dev Team and Chronic Dev Team. Both of the dev teams really didnt do anything, it was all @pod2g's work and he gave the files to both of them to test and release.

Q.Do you think that new usergroups are good for the site? In what way do that affect HF?

A. I don't think new usergroups are good for the site, because we have 13 groups already and addition of 2 more equals to 15 groups in total and most of the groups similar to each another such as posting HQ tutorials and guides, giving back to HF and helping out others/ learning more things. If there are new and different groups then I would like to join them and learn and also do new things with them and do different things instead of doing the same thing over and over in different groups. Plus I also find the RED LIONS group kinda useless because they were officially made to take care of scammers but if the I go into the "Open disputes" section I can see over 3 threads but different people saying that they were scammed by the same scammer others were. I believe red lions should limit a scammer who fails to refund the money so that he would have less people being scammed instead of waiting for 4 scams to be completed by a scammer in order to be banned.

I don't trust any member on this site except Omniscient at times.

I know Red Lions is not a scam prevention group but they do handle scam reports and report SPAM on HF. They sure do not have the ability to moderate anything but they sure do build a database of scam offenders and as they do I believe Mods should take the words of the red lion leaders and look more into the database and ban a scammer who has committed at least 2 scams and not wait til 4 scams to be made successfully.

OK I also take interest in it, but according to Red Lions they mainly cover up the Marketplace and report sales trashing, illegal products, trolling etc but their reports aren't taken care of mostly, why?

Red Lions is a group which the members try to make HF a better place which includes by reporting SPAM so that HF is a better and safer place but their reports are looked cover at times. Not just that if I issue a report to some Mods/Mentors they either don't reply back to me or take care of the problem and let the people go. That's why I prefer contacting T3h Hack3r from the Mods list and iNviZ from the Mentors list, because they always get back to me and tell me why they did that action.

Good work, I liked it.

Some of the things I didn't like, however are:

- The second 'interview' wasn't much of an interview. No one even 'interviewed' the guy, it looks like you just threw together some questions and answers. Very poor job on it. The first interview, though, was nice.
- I think the music section is unnecessary.
- You are going to run out of things to say for 'Sir's Second', maybe make it like 'User's Second'? That way people other than Sir can have their 'moment to shine', they'll also have different things to say and different ways to say it.
- Since this is a 'professional' News team (or so members a part of it have claimed), I think that the comics were too childish. I also don't think the comics should include vulgarity like the second one.
- Why are the 'Written topics' even there? I don't understand the purpose.
- I also think you should include more user news.

Not sure if I personally like the changes.

Hey guys,

First I'd like to say that I'm pleased that you're taking suggestions to the HF News, I'm sure many members appreciate it. With that being said, however, I don't particularly like the music news. The Kanye West & Jay-Z thing was interesting, but I feel like it should go in the World News category. I'd personally prefer a return to this writing style of HF News with the GFX showcase of course. But that's just my opinion.

Also, why is the World News the exact same as the last edition?! That's not very current.

I agree with Yellows that the second interview wasn't very well put together, and I think that you guys should have overridden Poppins style of doing interviews. Hopefully I get interviewed soon ?. I personally like the comics, and I love the Written Topics option because it saves some time. As for the web show itself, I like the concept of Sir and xerotic doing a show together - it makes things more interesting.

Just a note to Sir and the HF News team before I start evaluating user responses: I think that the HF News team needs to stay away from the HF Tribune thread if they have nothing valuable to say. I feel that some members of the HF News team say way too much, that could annoy people. Other than that, I'd like to commend you on a successful HF News edition - we all know how much time you guys put into the News. Thanks.

The Red Lions were not officially made to take care of scammers, they just assist in dealing with deal disputes. It's nokia2mon2's group, and he didn't make it to deal with scammers. Also, as xerotic may have pointed out before, the Red Lions don't have power to limit anyone.

In my opinion, the Red Lions need a massive revival. Wolves is away for a bit, and he was the life of the Red Lions when I was there; Hysteria was good too, except Wolves dealt with more user-related things. When I was a Red Lion for a brief time, I started a project to reform the Scammers Database; however, it seems to have died when I left. Now, it seems as if the Red Lions has no purpose. Wolves is no longer a leader in the group. So it's basically just me running the group, while Nokia is off doing his own thing. I have assigned co-leaders and have a plan in my head to do something in the group. If you look around, most groups have "no purpose." Honestly a group on this forum is just a bunch of friends that get along with each other and to stay away from the majority of the forum at times.

It's changed a lot since you left the group, and recruitment is opened. I have been planning on a change on the group, but I want to talk to Nokia about it before I do, so I am waiting for that.

It's hard to make massive changes to the group and in all honesty, all the users are active, get along and help each others out so I don't see a need for a "massive revival." Maybe a few changes here and there.

For those who think the Red Lions just focuses on the deal dispute section is wrong. It's too hard to figure out who is right in those all the time, there are things I want to get going that can help people to not get scammed, not totally prevent it 100%.

Maybe make the video itself more visually attractive, with special effects of some kind. Pop-up images related to the subject. It's static at the moment with only 1 text-caption, which is probably the reason why many find it 'boring'.

It's his voice. He should just talk normal, like he's having a genuine conversation with someone, not like he is doing a webshow if you understand where I'm coming from:P

But eye candy would be better!

Hmm. So basically make the video more catchy, lots more eyecandy, animations to get people interested. Then also possibly have Sir talk more normally (I don't understand, he sounds like he's talking normally), or just get someone with a better voice? Hmm. I'd like to hear more suggestions to make the Webshow more entertaining and watched.

I agree. I'd probably watch the web show if it had someone with a voice like Morgan Freeman talking in it.

Garen - December 30, 2011, 9:12 pm

Wow I just found the HF news and it is great :D. I have gone through about 30 of them and will read/watch more later. Great job Sir I really like what you have been doing it is great.

Morgan Freeman is actually one of my favorite actors. If anyone had a voice like that, I'd watch their show.

Heartboy - December 31, 2011, 1:20 pm

Very great news report! I loved every minute of it.

My voice isn't far off IMO.

I'll record a clip of my voice when I get time and post it here.

I'm sure a lot of people would use it.

The sig you're wearing right now though, isn't the best.

I think it is nice and clean. That is how the HF News is too.

The HF Tribune is colorful. Their signature is colorful.

I actually REALLY like the HF News signature you made. It looks really nice, simple, sleek. Also, just ignore Yellows. All he wants is competition and conflict, that's why he insulted the signature by it, "not being the best".

I'm sorry, is my opinion always an insult to you? If so, you've got to really lighten up. I was just giving constructive criticism. I really don't like it all that much, it isn't an insult.

I wasn't talking about the Tribune at all, I just don't like the signature all that much imho. I guess you have a point though, the News is simple and clean much like the sig.

So, you went from saying what you said was an opinion to constructive criticism? Wow... Your English teacher must be a volunteer....

THIS is an example of constructive criticism:

[img]http://n8tip.com/wp-content/uploads/2007/09/hamburgermethodconstructivec.jpg[/img]

You gave a compliment, and an opinion.

Compliment of yours: I'm sure a lot of people would use it.
> Implying other people would like it

Opinion of yours: I really don't like it, imo.
> Opinion, straight forward

Wow. I think I just picked apart both of your posts without trying. I'm done fighting with you, it's like fighting with a child.

Hopefully everything turns out all right and you guys get this off tonight.
