So this is how to get anything for free:

Step 1. Sign up at <http://silentrewards.com>, this website is strictly invite only so you need an invitation code. Luckily since I've registered I'd be happy to give out invite codes, mine is: 8BNIPNB3JE

Step 2. Complete offers, before you click away, these offers are not difficult, I made 600 points from one offer using fake information. You can also use software like RoboForm to fill surveys in. There are also contests and raffles which you can also enter.

I've signed up today and have already started making points as you can see in the screenshot below.

There are three rewards you can get. These rewards are Gift Card Rewards like Amazon, Dell and eBay gift cards. Code Rewards like Xbox Live cards, iTunes cards and PSN credits. And Custom Rewards, where you make a custom gift like Dr. Dre Beats, Playstations, Xbox's and just about anything.

Enjoy getting anything for free. If you need any help, feel free to PM me.
