Since all you guys like to rant about SOPA, and how you're going to start targeting government websites, I decided to get a few.

Now these aren't for beginners, you'll at least need to be intermediate at SQLi. I found these myself, didn't use a scanner, I'm not even sure a scanner will pick these vulnerabilities out. Anyways, they're all vulnerable to Blind SQL Injection.

Every government site gets seen, leaving your little SOPA message on their homepage should piss them off.

hacking a gov site by your own is always a bad idea intruder7008 - January 20, 2012, 3:15 am how to began with site hacking mahn??

Zhen. - January 20, 2012, 3:34 am

Boolean Based Blind Injection

Won't be hard for me, but Blind's a pain in the ass lol
