Had the site compromised for quite a while. They received some rather interesting and lol worthy text messages which had to be passed by admin before sending which were fun to read.

Have a read. Shout outs given.

Edit:

Report with images.

Site was really exposed of personal phone numbers and messages lol

Even that type of information cannot be protected from the simplest queries of SQL injection, too bad for them :P

Hooded Robin - January 20, 2012, 7:19 am

Nice work there fellas, and thanks for the shoutout!
