Thread: Critique My Second Creation... please!

Ayalastar - December 23, 2009, 7:17 pm

As a request to the general population, I ask of you to rate my signatures on a scale of one to ten. All constructive criticism appreciated! I use both of these, for two different screen names.

#1 (Version: 1)

I like the first one better.

Dude. It's too simple and basic. Try to read some tutorials first and learn.

I won't rate or comment that.

KnobMoinster - December 23, 2009, 8:24 pm

do some tuts and its to simple.

maxpayne - December 23, 2009, 8:25 pm

I fucking hate signatures. Graphics with no use whatsoever. Just eat up screen space.

You will dine in hell. You must not hate anything.

And you are bad boy and won't get anything from Santa this year ?

I asked for constructive criticism, not a bunch of raging and flaming :3

We aren't raging and flaming moron! They told you that you should read some tutorials and learn a bit more before you bother posting images. One thing a GFX member should learn is when he has reached a league of skill that is worth posting. So far all you have done is used a cloud filter a render and a crap ass font...

Do you really take any pride in this at all? I was never even that damn bad.
